"Sure he wouldn't git to be a Rube or a hayseed—or a hick—or somethin' like that?" queried Hiram.

"Those names," said the reporter, "are a survival of a crude age when the people had no proper sense of relative values. The farmer in those days was misunderstood and unappreciated. The people were blind. They did not know. And the farmer was too modest and unassuming to assert his dignity and worth. But all that is changed. A careful revision of the polling figures in Kings county gave an additional seat to the government today, showing S.I. Keith leading G. B. Jones (O) by a single vote. One poil in Charlotte county is still unheard from and the question of the election of J. W. Scovil (G) is still in doubt. Late last night it was reported that he was only two votes behind his nearest opponent, and it was hoped ported that he was only two votes behind his nearest opponent, and it was hoped who reached Spithead that Clarendon would return him sufficient votes to elect him. Should this hope battle cruiser Renown, farmer, leaving the government with twenty-six seats, the opposition, twelve; farmers, eight, and labor, two.
