ROBERTSON'S

IS A PRIEST 58 YEARS.

Cardinal Gibbons on June 30 celebrated his thirty-third anniversary as Cardinal Bishop of Baltimore and the fifty-eighth anniversary of his ordination to priesthood. He celebrated mass at seven o'clock and later in the day called upon Mgr. Starr, an old friend, who celebrated his golden jubilee on the same day. The cardinal later said that he was getting ready to leave the city for a brief vacation with friends. In spite of his advanced age the venerable primate is in perfect health, and never misses a day in taking his accustomed walk. He will be eighty-five years old the latter part of this month.
