

Good Things Coming to Theatres of St. John

YOU'LL LIKE "EXTRAVAGANCE" AND OTHER FEATURES OF OPERA HOUSE BILL

Miss Phyllis Gilmore, a well known dramatic star and vaudeville favorite, at the Opera House this week in "Extravagance."

There is a bright dramatic star at the Opera House this week in a playlet called "Extravagance," Phyllis Gilmore, who, in this little bit of everyday life, shows marked ability as an actress and a personality that makes her a general favorite at once. And her supporting company of two—Victor Browne and Ford Tidmarsh, the latter by the way, a well known scene favorite whom you have seen in many good pictures, are both clever actors and the three present this playlet so well that one wishes it was a real three act play. If you enjoy good acting "Extravagance" will surely please you.

Lawrence Bros. and Thelma, these clever jugglers, are another good feature on the programme, and then there is Eddie Healey, a sweet singer of Irish songs; Allan and Wood, two black-face comedians, who would draw laughs from a graven image; The Newsboys in sensational bicycle feats; and the serial drama, "Vengeance and the Woman," a gripping story of adventure in the Rocky Mountains.

Evening performances at 7.30 and 8.45—afternoon at 2.30. Popular prices.

A BUMPER DAY FOR FRANCE

The first day's campaign in selling tickets in public places for the grand four shows in Imperial Theatre Thursday in aid of the French Red Cross was a signal success. The price is only a quarter and the programme is going to be long and good. There will be a wonderful Vitaphone production, entitled "For France"—one of those patriotic thrillers that will bring you to your feet holding your head off a sweet and powerful force of some of the loveliest places in la belle France. A budget of British official war pictures on all fronts of battle and an aerial journey aboard a battleship over the Royal Flying Corps grounds and vicinity at Toronto. The Imperial has been sold out for the whole day—this Thursday—to the local Red Cross people, who are putting on this show as their yearly contribution to stricken France. Everybody's doing it, Britain, United States and all Canada. Remember the admission is a quarter dollar. Imperial's scale of prices does not obtain in this case.

THE GEM TONIGHT

Tonight at 7.15 and 8.45 the Gem will present its present pleasing picture programme for the last time. The Eagle's Eye, two reels of fun plots in the U. S. and "Mrs. Slacker," five reels with Cleighton Hall and Gladys Hulette. A good programme that you'll enjoy.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. Harold McGuire have returned to the city. Major Don Fisher, who has been at the Ross Rifle factory in Quebec is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Fisher at Langley—Mrs. Cameron, of Peterboro, Ont., is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Fisher. Mrs. Walter Harrison, accompanied her husband, Major Walter Harrison, to London and was present at Buckingham Palace when Major Harrison was invested with the Military Cross.

Miss Florence Piddington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Piddington of Rotherham, underwent an operation at the General Public Hospital on Sunday and is progressing favorably.

Miss Mabel I. Humphrey who has been studying nursing at Newton Hospital, Newton, Mass., is visiting her parents at Ononete.

Mrs. John Macaulay of Brooklyn, accompanied by her little daughter, is visiting her mother, Mrs. William Sinclair, Pitt and Princess streets. Miss Hattie Cowan, also of Brooklyn, is also visiting her aunts and grandmother for a few weeks. Her grandmother is Mrs. Sinclair.

Miss Audrey Ross, daughter of Superintendent of Terminals L. R. Ross, is recovering from a serious illness in Fredrickton.

J. P. Appleby of the C. P. R. telegraphic staff, Montreal, arrived in town today.

Basile Horsfall, general manager for Canada of the Montreal Film Corp., came to the city on the noon train from Montreal.

Misses Jean and Elnor Matthews have gone to Weymouth, N. S., to visit their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel McCormack.

MARRIAGES

LUGRIN-BLIZZARD—On July 15, at 11 a. m., by the Rev. Neil M. McLaughlin, Roy S. Lugin to Marion Pearl Blizzard, both of this city.

DEATHS

DONAHAY—At the Mater Misericordiae Home, on July 15, 1918, Mary, widow of William Donahay (pilot). Funeral from the home on Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock. Friends invited.

McAfee—On July 16, Mary Ann, widow of Alexander McAfee of Quispamsis, in the 60th year of her age, leaving husband, son, sister and brother to mourn.

Funeral service will be held from his late home Thursday at 1.30 o'clock. Interment at Fernhill.

Notice of funeral hereafter.

BONNELL—At her parents' residence, 21 Victoria Lane, on the 15th inst., Alice D., youngest daughter of Fred and Emma Bonnells, aged two years four months and ten days, leaving her parents and two sisters to mourn.

Burial on Tuesday at Brown's Plots.

IN MEMORIAM

TYNER—In loving remembrance of Richard E. Tyner, who departed this life July 15, 1908.

DAUGHTER.

LOCAL NEWS

Amidst the going on now. 7-18

DON'T BE LATE. Amidst the sale will last only a few days more. 7-18

LADIES' SUITS $10.98. At Wilcox's July clearance sale you can get ladies' suits worth $16 for $10.98 and $14 for $7.98 at Charlotte street corner Union. 7-18

GREAT BARGAINS. At Amdur's sale, 248-250-252-260 King street, West St. John. 7-18

"LET'S GO". Where we can get the most and best for our money. Where? Where do you suppose?—Worce's Cash Store.

AT AMPUR'S SALE. Many specials in the dry goods and grocery departments. 7-18

GOING ON NOW. Amidst the sale has many specials for the day. 7-18

STEAMSHIP ASHORE NEAR HALIFAX IS FLOATED. Ottawa, July 16.—The S. S. Beville Point, a new steamship of 8,854 tons, which went ashore in a fog at Five Fathom harbor, about twenty-five miles east of Halifax, on July 1, has been successfully floated and taken to Halifax and docked.

STRIKE ON AND SOON OFF AGAIN. (Continued from page 1.) R. here an agreement which will not expire until next March, and he says the men will live up to it. The only possibility of a strike here, he explains, would be in the event of the T. R. & B. machinists being asked to do work for the C. P. R.

Back Work. Washington, July 16.—Louis Weyand, of Cleveland, president of the International Brotherhood of Shipyard Workers, announced last night that he had issued an order to striking boilermakers employed on government work at Oakland, Cal., to return to work at once. The controversy was being settled by the Labor Adjustment Board for shipyard disputes.

Some Cars Running. Vancouver, B. C., July 16.—Street car service was resumed yesterday afternoon following a meeting of the street railway company and the C. P. R. men, they went to the car barns and took out their cars as usual, under the limits of the power service the company can give at present in the face of the Electrical Workers' strike. The Electrical Workers are still out, but will hold a meeting to-night, when a settlement with the company may be made.

Toronto Carpenters. Toronto, July 16.—Asking the payment of the union minimum wage, nearly 200 carpenters went out on strike here yesterday. One hundred and forty-five of the men are from one factory, the carpenters are now being paid from forty-five to fifty cents an hour, and are asking for the minimum union wages, which, they say, is not more than a half cent, but which will become sixty cents on August 1.

Arbitration. Fredericton, July 16.—The threatened strike of employees of the Canadian General Electric Company here has been averted. The men and the company agreed to arbitration.

The Big One. Montreal, July 16.—No settlement of the wage differences between the Federated Shipmen's Brotherhood and the Canadian Railways was announced this morning.

Strike Likely. Montreal, July 16.—According to brotherhood representatives here, a strike looked inevitable this morning as the offer of the McAdoo schedule has already been emphatically refused.

Later. Montreal, July 16.—The announcement was made today on behalf of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen and the Order of Railway Conductors here that these organizations had practically come to an agreement with the C. P. R. to accept the McAdoo award. It was also said that these two unions would not interfere in any way with the negotiations and any fight that afterwards might take place.

Lost His Property. The residence of Dr. Frank M. Brown of Centreville, formerly of Fredericton, was destroyed by a fire at that place a few days ago, together with his out-buildings and a pair of valuable horses. The furniture was mostly saved.

Will Be Sent Back. A young Halifax boy who has been detained by the police at Fredericton and who told a story that the explosion and benefit him of his parents and home, has been identified as James Magee. At the instance of the Halifax relief committee he will be sent back to Halifax. This boy spent some time in St. John.

SUSPECT SOLDIERS OF BREAKING INTO STORE

Charge Follows Finding of Men at Early Hour on Duna's Wharf

Two young soldiers, Walter Pike and Stanley K. Edwards, were found wandering about Duna's wharf in West St. John at an early hour this morning by Policeman Spinnery, and as they were unable to give a satisfactory account of themselves they were taken into custody. Articles found on them were said to answer to a description of goods missing from John Carey's store in Fairville, and they were booked as under suspicion of breaking and entering the store.

Policeman Spinnery testified about making the arrest and about his suspicion being aroused when he removed fish lights, keys, etc., from their pockets.

Mr. Carey said that several of the articles were similar to those taken from his store. He said that in addition to these a box of cigars, twelve packages of cigarettes and some change had been taken. He said that some old coins were similar to those he kept in his store. He said he also missed a pair of grey socks and upon examination a pair answering the description of those stolen were found on Pike. The prisoners were remanded and warned that if caught again they could be sent to Doncaster for four years. The case is taking the form of a preliminary hearing.

Mr. Carey said that several of the articles were similar to those taken from his store. He said that in addition to these a box of cigars, twelve packages of cigarettes and some change had been taken. He said that some old coins were similar to those he kept in his store. He said he also missed a pair of grey socks and upon examination a pair answering the description of those stolen were found on Pike. The prisoners were remanded and warned that if caught again they could be sent to Doncaster for four years. The case is taking the form of a preliminary hearing.

Mr. Carey said that several of the articles were similar to those taken from his store. He said that in addition to these a box of cigars, twelve packages of cigarettes and some change had been taken. He said that some old coins were similar to those he kept in his store. He said he also missed a pair of grey socks and upon examination a pair answering the description of those stolen were found on Pike. The prisoners were remanded and warned that if caught again they could be sent to Doncaster for four years. The case is taking the form of a preliminary hearing.

Mr. Carey said that several of the articles were similar to those taken from his store. He said that in addition to these a box of cigars, twelve packages of cigarettes and some change had been taken. He said that some old coins were similar to those he kept in his store. He said he also missed a pair of grey socks and upon examination a pair answering the description of those stolen were found on Pike. The prisoners were remanded and warned that if caught again they could be sent to Doncaster for four years. The case is taking the form of a preliminary hearing.

Mr. Carey said that several of the articles were similar to those taken from his store. He said that in addition to these a box of cigars, twelve packages of cigarettes and some change had been taken. He said that some old coins were similar to those he kept in his store. He said he also missed a pair of grey socks and upon examination a pair answering the description of those stolen were found on Pike. The prisoners were remanded and warned that if caught again they could be sent to Doncaster for four years. The case is taking the form of a preliminary hearing.

Mr. Carey said that several of the articles were similar to those taken from his store. He said that in addition to these a box of cigars, twelve packages of cigarettes and some change had been taken. He said that some old coins were similar to those he kept in his store. He said he also missed a pair of grey socks and upon examination a pair answering the description of those stolen were found on Pike. The prisoners were remanded and warned that if caught again they could be sent to Doncaster for four years. The case is taking the form of a preliminary hearing.

Mr. Carey said that several of the articles were similar to those taken from his store. He said that in addition to these a box of cigars, twelve packages of cigarettes and some change had been taken. He said that some old coins were similar to those he kept in his store. He said he also missed a pair of grey socks and upon examination a pair answering the description of those stolen were found on Pike. The prisoners were remanded and warned that if caught again they could be sent to Doncaster for four years. The case is taking the form of a preliminary hearing.

Mr. Carey said that several of the articles were similar to those taken from his store. He said that in addition to these a box of cigars, twelve packages of cigarettes and some change had been taken. He said that some old coins were similar to those he kept in his store. He said he also missed a pair of grey socks and upon examination a pair answering the description of those stolen were found on Pike. The prisoners were remanded and warned that if caught again they could be sent to Doncaster for four years. The case is taking the form of a preliminary hearing.

Mr. Carey said that several of the articles were similar to those taken from his store. He said that in addition to these a box of cigars, twelve packages of cigarettes and some change had been taken. He said that some old coins were similar to those he kept in his store. He said he also missed a pair of grey socks and upon examination a pair answering the description of those stolen were found on Pike. The prisoners were remanded and warned that if caught again they could be sent to Doncaster for four years. The case is taking the form of a preliminary hearing.

Mr. Carey said that several of the articles were similar to those taken from his store. He said that in addition to these a box of cigars, twelve packages of cigarettes and some change had been taken. He said that some old coins were similar to those he kept in his store. He said he also missed a pair of grey socks and upon examination a pair answering the description of those stolen were found on Pike. The prisoners were remanded and warned that if caught again they could be sent to Doncaster for four years. The case is taking the form of a preliminary hearing.

Mr. Carey said that several of the articles were similar to those taken from his store. He said that in addition to these a box of cigars, twelve packages of cigarettes and some change had been taken. He said that some old coins were similar to those he kept in his store. He said he also missed a pair of grey socks and upon examination a pair answering the description of those stolen were found on Pike. The prisoners were remanded and warned that if caught again they could be sent to Doncaster for four years. The case is taking the form of a preliminary hearing.

Mr. Carey said that several of the articles were similar to those taken from his store. He said that in addition to these a box of cigars, twelve packages of cigarettes and some change had been taken. He said that some old coins were similar to those he kept in his store. He said he also missed a pair of grey socks and upon examination a pair answering the description of those stolen were found on Pike. The prisoners were remanded and warned that if caught again they could be sent to Doncaster for four years. The case is taking the form of a preliminary hearing.

Mr. Carey said that several of the articles were similar to those taken from his store. He said that in addition to these a box of cigars, twelve packages of cigarettes and some change had been taken. He said that some old coins were similar to those he kept in his store. He said he also missed a pair of grey socks and upon examination a pair answering the description of those stolen were found on Pike. The prisoners were remanded and warned that if caught again they could be sent to Doncaster for four years. The case is taking the form of a preliminary hearing.

Mr. Carey said that several of the articles were similar to those taken from his store. He said that in addition to these a box of cigars, twelve packages of cigarettes and some change had been taken. He said that some old coins were similar to those he kept in his store. He said he also missed a pair of grey socks and upon examination a pair answering the description of those stolen were found on Pike. The prisoners were remanded and warned that if caught again they could be sent to Doncaster for four years. The case is taking the form of a preliminary hearing.

Mr. Carey said that several of the articles were similar to those taken from his store. He said that in addition to these a box of cigars, twelve packages of cigarettes and some change had been taken. He said that some old coins were similar to those he kept in his store. He said he also missed a pair of grey socks and upon examination a pair answering the description of those stolen were found on Pike. The prisoners were remanded and warned that if caught again they could be sent to Doncaster for four years. The case is taking the form of a preliminary hearing.

Mr. Carey said that several of the articles were similar to those taken from his store. He said that in addition to these a box of cigars, twelve packages of cigarettes and some change had been taken. He said that some old coins were similar to those he kept in his store. He said he also missed a pair of grey socks and upon examination a pair answering the description of those stolen were found on Pike. The prisoners were remanded and warned that if caught again they could be sent to Doncaster for four years. The case is taking the form of a preliminary hearing.

Mr. Carey said that several of the articles were similar to those taken from his store. He said that in addition to these a box of cigars, twelve packages of cigarettes and some change had been taken. He said that some old coins were similar to those he kept in his store. He said he also missed a pair of grey socks and upon examination a pair answering the description of those stolen were found on Pike. The prisoners were remanded and warned that if caught again they could be sent to Doncaster for four years. The case is taking the form of a preliminary hearing.

Mr. Carey said that several of the articles were similar to those taken from his store. He said that in addition to these a box of cigars, twelve packages of cigarettes and some change had been taken. He said that some old coins were similar to those he kept in his store. He said he also missed a pair of grey socks and upon examination a pair answering the description of those stolen were found on Pike. The prisoners were remanded and warned that if caught again they could be sent to Doncaster for four years. The case is taking the form of a preliminary hearing.

Mr. Carey said that several of the articles were similar to those taken from his store. He said that in addition to these a box of cigars, twelve packages of cigarettes and some change had been taken. He said that some old coins were similar to those he kept in his store. He said he also missed a pair of grey socks and upon examination a pair answering the description of those stolen were found on Pike. The prisoners were remanded and warned that if caught again they could be sent to Doncaster for four years. The case is taking the form of a preliminary hearing.

Mr. Carey said that several of the articles were similar to those taken from his store. He said that in addition to these a box of cigars, twelve packages of cigarettes and some change had been taken. He said that some old coins were similar to those he kept in his store. He said he also missed a pair of grey socks and upon examination a pair answering the description of those stolen were found on Pike. The prisoners were remanded and warned that if caught again they could be sent to Doncaster for four years. The case is taking the form of a preliminary hearing.

Mr. Carey said that several of the articles were similar to those taken from his store. He said that in addition to these a box of cigars, twelve packages of cigarettes and some change had been taken. He said that some old coins were similar to those he kept in his store. He said he also missed a pair of grey socks and upon examination a pair answering the description of those stolen were found on Pike. The prisoners were remanded and warned that if caught again they could be sent to Doncaster for four years. The case is taking the form of a preliminary hearing.

Mr. Carey said that several of the articles were similar to those taken from his store. He said that in addition to these a box of cigars, twelve packages of cigarettes and some change had been taken. He said that some old coins were similar to those he kept in his store. He said he also missed a pair of grey socks and upon examination a pair answering the description of those stolen were found on Pike. The prisoners were remanded and warned that if caught again they could be sent to Doncaster for four years. The case is taking the form of a preliminary hearing.

Mr. Carey said that several of the articles were similar to those taken from his store. He said that in addition to these a box of cigars, twelve packages of cigarettes and some change had been taken. He said that some old coins were similar to those he kept in his store. He said he also missed a pair of grey socks and upon examination a pair answering the description of those stolen were found on Pike. The prisoners were remanded and warned that if caught again they could be sent to Doncaster for four years. The case is taking the form of a preliminary hearing.

Mr. Carey said that several of the articles were similar to those taken from his store. He said that in addition to these a box of cigars, twelve packages of cigarettes and some change had been taken. He said that some old coins were similar to those he kept in his store. He said he also missed a pair of grey socks and upon examination a pair answering the description of those stolen were found on Pike. The prisoners were remanded and warned that if caught again they could be sent to Doncaster for four years. The case is taking the form of a preliminary hearing.

Mr. Carey said that several of the articles were similar to those taken from his store. He said that in addition to these a box of cigars, twelve packages of cigarettes and some change had been taken. He said that some old coins were similar to those he kept in his store. He said he also missed a pair of grey socks and upon examination a pair answering the description of those stolen were found on Pike. The prisoners were remanded and warned that if caught again they could be sent to Doncaster for four years. The case is taking the form of a preliminary hearing.

Mr. Carey said that several of the articles were similar to those taken from his store. He said that in addition to these a box of cigars, twelve packages of cigarettes and some change had been taken. He said that some old coins were similar to those he kept in his store. He said he also missed a pair of grey socks and upon examination a pair answering the description of those stolen were found on Pike. The prisoners were remanded and warned that if caught again they could be sent to Doncaster for four years. The case is taking the form of a preliminary hearing.

Mr. Carey said that several of the articles were similar to those taken from his store. He said that in addition to these a box of cigars, twelve packages of cigarettes and some change had been taken. He said that some old coins were similar to those he kept in his store. He said he also missed a pair of grey socks and upon examination a pair answering the description of those stolen were found on Pike. The prisoners were remanded and warned that if caught again they could be sent to Doncaster for four years. The case is taking the form of a preliminary hearing.

Mr. Carey said that several of the articles were similar to those taken from his store. He said that in addition to these a box of cigars, twelve packages of cigarettes and some change had been taken. He said that some old coins were similar to those he kept in his store. He said he also missed a pair of grey socks and upon examination a pair answering the description of those stolen were found on Pike. The prisoners were remanded and warned that if caught again they could be sent to Doncaster for four years. The case is taking the form of a preliminary hearing.

Mr. Carey said that several of the articles were similar to those taken from his store. He said that in addition to these a box of cigars, twelve packages of cigarettes and some change had been taken. He said that some old coins were similar to those he kept in his store. He said he also missed a pair of grey socks and upon examination a pair answering the description of those stolen were found on Pike. The prisoners were remanded and warned that if caught again they could be sent to Doncaster for four years. The case is taking the form of a preliminary hearing.

Mr. Carey said that several of the articles were similar to those taken from his store. He said that in addition to these a box of cigars, twelve packages of cigarettes and some change had been taken. He said that some old coins were similar to those he kept in his store. He said he also missed a pair of grey socks and upon examination a pair answering the description of those stolen were found on Pike. The prisoners were remanded and warned that if caught again they could be sent to Doncaster for four years. The case is taking the form of a preliminary hearing.

Mr. Carey said that several of the articles were similar to those taken from his store. He said that in addition to these a box of cigars, twelve packages of cigarettes and some change had been taken. He said that some old coins were similar to those he kept in his store. He said he also missed a pair of grey socks and upon examination a pair answering the description of those stolen were found on Pike. The prisoners were remanded and warned that if caught again they could be sent to Doncaster for four years. The case is taking the form of a preliminary hearing.

Mr. Carey said that several of the articles were similar to those taken from his store. He said that in addition to these a box of cigars, twelve packages of cigarettes and some change had been taken. He said that some old coins were similar to those he kept in his store. He said he also missed a pair of grey socks and upon examination a pair answering the description of those stolen were found on Pike. The prisoners were remanded and warned that if caught again they could be sent to Doncaster for four years. The case is taking the form of a preliminary hearing.

Mr. Carey said that several of the articles were similar to those taken from his store. He said that in addition to these a box of cigars, twelve packages of cigarettes and some change had been taken. He said that some old coins were similar to those he kept in his store. He said he also missed a pair of grey socks and upon examination a pair answering the description of those stolen were found on Pike. The prisoners were remanded and warned that if caught again they could be sent to Doncaster for four years. The case is taking the form of a preliminary hearing.

Mr. Carey said that several of the articles were similar to those taken from his store. He said that in addition to these a box of cigars, twelve packages of cigarettes and some change had been taken. He said that some old coins were similar to those he kept in his store. He said he also missed a pair of grey socks and upon examination a pair answering the description of those stolen were found on Pike. The prisoners were remanded and warned that if caught again they could be sent to Doncaster for four years. The case is taking the form of a preliminary hearing.

Mr. Carey said that several of the articles were similar to those taken from his store. He said that in addition to these a box of cigars, twelve packages of cigarettes and some change had been taken. He said that some old coins were similar to those he kept in his store. He said he also missed a pair of grey socks and upon examination a pair answering the description of those stolen were found on Pike. The prisoners were remanded and warned that if caught again they could be sent to Doncaster for four years. The case is taking the form of a preliminary hearing.

Mr. Carey said that several of the articles were similar to those taken from his store. He said that in addition to these a box of cigars, twelve packages of cigarettes and some change had been taken. He said that some old coins were similar to those he kept in his store. He said he also missed a pair of grey socks and upon examination a pair answering the description of those stolen were found on Pike. The prisoners were remanded and warned that if caught again they could be sent to Doncaster for four years. The case is taking the form of a preliminary hearing.

Mr. Carey said that several of the articles were similar to those taken from his store. He said that in addition to these a box of cigars, twelve packages of cigarettes and some change had been taken. He said that some old coins were similar to those he kept in his store. He said he also missed a pair of grey socks and upon examination a pair answering the description of those stolen were found on Pike. The prisoners were remanded and warned that if caught again they could be sent to Doncaster for four years. The case is taking the form of a preliminary hearing.

Mr. Carey said that several of the articles were similar to those taken from his store. He said that in addition to these a box of cigars, twelve packages of cigarettes and some change had been taken. He said that some old coins were similar to those he kept in his store. He said he also missed a pair of grey socks and upon examination a pair answering the description of those stolen were found on Pike. The prisoners were remanded and warned that if caught again they could be sent to Doncaster for four years. The case is taking the form of a preliminary hearing.

Mr. Carey said that several of the articles were similar to those taken from his store. He said that in addition to these a box of cigars, twelve packages of cigarettes and some change had been taken. He said that some old coins were similar to those he kept in his store. He said he also missed a pair of grey socks and upon examination a pair answering the description of those stolen were found on Pike. The prisoners were remanded and warned that if caught again they could be sent to Doncaster for four years. The case is taking the form of a preliminary hearing.

Mr. Carey said that several of the articles were similar to those taken from his store. He said that in addition to these a box of cigars, twelve packages of cigarettes and some change had been taken. He said that some old coins were similar to those he kept in his store. He said he also missed a pair of grey socks and upon examination a pair answering the description of those stolen were found on Pike. The prisoners were remanded and warned that if caught again they could be sent to Doncaster for four years. The case is taking the form of a preliminary hearing.

Mr. Carey said that several of the articles were similar to those taken from his store. He said that in addition to these a box of cigars, twelve packages of cigarettes and some change had been taken. He said that some old coins were similar to those he kept in his store. He said he also missed a pair of grey socks and upon examination a pair answering the description of those stolen were found on Pike. The prisoners were remanded and warned that if caught again they could be sent to Doncaster for four years. The case is taking the form of a preliminary hearing.

Mr. Carey said that several of the articles were similar to those taken from his store. He said that in addition to these a box of cigars, twelve packages of cigarettes and some change had been taken. He said that some old coins were similar to those he kept in his store. He said he also missed a pair of grey socks and upon examination a pair answering the description of those stolen were found on Pike. The prisoners were remanded and warned that if caught again they could be sent to Doncaster for four years. The case is taking the form of a preliminary hearing.

Mr. Carey said that several of the articles were similar to those taken from his store. He said that in addition to these a box of cigars, twelve packages of cigarettes and some change had been taken. He said that some old coins were similar to those he kept in his store. He said he also missed a pair of grey socks and upon examination a pair answering the description of those stolen were found on Pike. The prisoners were remanded and warned that if caught again they could be sent to Doncaster for four years. The case is taking the form of a preliminary hearing.

Mr. Carey said that several of the articles were similar to those taken from his store. He said that in addition to these a box of cigars, twelve packages of cigarettes and some change had been taken. He said that some old coins were similar to those he kept in his store. He said he also missed a pair of grey socks and upon examination a pair answering the description of those stolen were found on Pike. The prisoners were remanded and warned that if caught again they could be sent to Doncaster for four years. The case is taking the form of a preliminary hearing.

Mr. Carey said that several of the articles were similar to those taken from his store. He said that in addition to these a box of cigars, twelve packages of cigarettes and some change had been taken. He said that some old coins were similar to those he kept in his store. He said he also missed a pair of grey socks and upon examination a pair answering the description of those stolen were found on Pike. The prisoners were remanded and warned that if caught again they could be sent to Doncaster for four years. The case is taking the form of a preliminary hearing.

Mr. Carey said that several of the articles were similar to those taken from his store. He said that in addition to these a box of cigars, twelve packages of cigarettes and some change had been taken. He said that some old coins were similar to those he kept in his store. He said he also missed a pair of grey socks and upon examination a pair answering the description of those stolen were found on Pike. The prisoners were remanded and warned that if caught again they could be sent to Doncaster for four years. The case is taking the form of a preliminary hearing.

Mr. Carey said that several of the articles were similar to those taken from his store. He said that in addition to these a box of cigars, twelve packages of cigarettes and some change had been taken. He said that some old coins were similar to those he kept in his store. He said he also missed a pair of grey socks and upon examination a pair answering the description of those stolen were found on Pike. The prisoners were remanded and warned that if caught again they could be sent to Doncaster for four years. The case is taking the form of a preliminary hearing.

Mr. Carey said that several of the articles were similar to those taken from his store. He said that in addition to these a box of cigars, twelve packages of cigarettes and some change had been taken. He said that some old coins were similar to those he kept in his store. He said he also missed a pair of grey socks and upon examination a pair answering the description of those stolen were found on Pike. The prisoners were remanded and warned that if caught again they could be sent to Doncaster for four years. The case is taking the form of a preliminary hearing.

Mr. Carey said that several of the articles were similar to those taken from his store. He said that in addition to these a box of cigars, twelve packages of cigarettes and some change had been taken. He said that some old coins were similar to those he kept in his store. He said he also missed a pair of grey socks and upon examination a pair answering the description of those stolen were found on Pike. The prisoners were remanded and warned that if caught again they could be sent to Doncaster for four years. The case is taking the form of a preliminary hearing.

Mr. Carey said that several of the articles were similar to those taken from his store. He said that in addition to these a box of cigars, twelve packages of cigarettes and some change had been taken. He said that some old coins were similar to those he kept in his store. He said he also missed a pair of grey socks and upon examination a pair answering the description of those stolen were found on Pike. The prisoners were remanded and warned that if caught again they could be sent to Doncaster for four years. The case is taking the form of a preliminary hearing.

Mr. Carey said that several of the articles were similar to those taken from his store. He said that in addition to these a box of cigars, twelve packages of cigarettes and some change had been taken. He said that some old coins were similar to those he kept in his store. He said he also missed a pair of grey socks and upon examination a pair answering the description of those stolen were found on Pike. The prisoners were remanded and warned that if caught again they could be sent to Doncaster for four years. The case is taking the form of a preliminary hearing.

Mr. Carey said that several of the articles were similar to those taken from his store. He said that in addition to these a box of cigars, twelve packages of cigarettes and some change had been taken. He said that some old coins were similar to those he kept in his store. He said he also missed a pair of grey socks and upon examination a pair answering the description of those stolen were found on Pike. The prisoners were remanded and warned that if caught again they could be sent to Doncaster for four years. The case is taking the form of a preliminary hearing.

Mr. Carey said that several of the articles were similar to those taken from his store. He said that in addition to these a box of cigars, twelve packages of cigarettes and some change had been taken. He said that some old coins were similar to those he kept in his store. He said he also missed a pair of grey socks and upon examination a pair answering the description of those stolen were found on Pike. The prisoners were remanded and warned that if caught again they could be sent to Doncaster for four years. The case is taking the form of a preliminary hearing.

Mr. Carey said that several of the articles were similar to those taken from his store. He said that in addition to these a box of cigars, twelve packages of cigarettes and some change had been taken. He said that some old coins were similar to those he kept in his store. He said he also missed a pair of grey socks and upon examination a pair answering the description of those stolen were found on Pike. The prisoners were remanded and warned that if caught again they could be sent to Doncaster for four years. The case is taking the form of a preliminary hearing.

Mr. Carey said that several of the articles were similar to those taken from his store. He said that in addition to these a box of cigars, twelve packages of