Uncle William, who wasn't especially poted for his generosity, was accosted in the visage post office by his shrewd little Ree visiage post office by his shrewd little gephen namesake.

"Say, Uncle, this is my birthday. Can't you give me 5 cents?"

Conscious of the amused gaze on the onlookers, Uncle William slowly reached into his pocket, saying: "I did have a nickel, but," withdrawing his hand, "I guess I haven't got it now."

"Oh, look again, Uncle," said little Willie, "if you had one, you must have it get!"—Woman's Home Companion.

INDIANS' CLAIMS TO WESTERN LANDS MAY BE TAKEN TO LONDON

Vancouver, B. C., Aug. 20—It is understood that Dr. J. A. J. McKenna of the interior department, Ottawa, who has been visiting British Columbia, will adbeen visiting British Columbia, will advise that Indians of this prevince, who declare that they have been treated badly in connection with lands which they once possessed, be allowed to present their claims to the colonial office in London. The Indians were paid large amounts for Prince Rupert and other reserves in the north, but they say they ought to be allowed liberally for the great domain taken up by the whites through railway building throughout the country. building throughout the country.

In Vancouver city there is a reserve on which Indians are holding the fort. They ive on eighty acres worth aproximatel

ONE OF THE VETERANS

Among those who signed the Imperial Veterans' Address and was present at the presentation to H. R. H. the Duke of Connaught, was George Stewart, whose name was omitted to be given the press. This veteran served during the whole of the South African war, in the Colonial Body Guard, Imperial Light Horse and Kitchener's Field Scouts under General French and Sir W. Kitchener. S. Cecil Irvine, on behalf of the Imperial Veterans of St. John, desires to thank the press of the city for assistance in bringing to a successful issue their parade of yesterday.

SACKVILLE APPOINTMENT.

The Sackville Tribune says the appointment of George A. Fawcett of Middle Sackville as a stipendiary magistrate for the County of Westmorland gives universal satisfaction to his legion of friends throughout that part of the province. It is recognized by all that the new stipendiary will make an admirable justice and one of strict impartiality and unimpeach able integrity. Mr. Fawcett is one of the largest potato growers and shippers in the province, shipping last year over one hundred carloads to the upper provinces and West Indies. Mr. Fawcett spent some years in the State of Maine, where he got a thorough insight into the potato grow-ing business.
