MARINE NEWS.
Star Aurora, which is now being rebuilt at Liverpool (N.S.), will not resume her place on the Grand Manan route before next spring, and then, it is said, she will be known by another name. The St. Stephen Courier says that the new boat will be known as the John Ingersoll, $15,000 will be spent in remodeling the Aurora. The Yarmouth star LaFour, which is now on a cruise, will run another week. She will be replaced by the star Bonawick, Capt. Potter, and the latter will run until the new boat is ready for service next April or May.

Soap jelly for washing flannels and fine woolen goods is easily made. Shred a piece of yellow soap into sufficient warm water and let it simmer five or six of the fire till dissolved. Add sufficient of this to warm water to make a nice lather. If too strong the flannels will be hard.

Do You Have Headache

"My first experience with Dr. Miles' Migraine Pills was a sample package handed me. They relieved the pain so promptly that I have never been without them since. I have given them to many friends when they had headache and they never failed to relieve them. I have suffered with neuralgia in my head, and the first one I took relieved me. They have cured me of neuralgia. I could not be without them."

FAMOUS GEMS OF PROSE

BANCROFT TO BRYANT
By George Bancroft

From address to William Cullen Bryant at the banquet in observance of the 70th anniversary of the poet's birth, in the Century building, New York, Nov. 5, 1884.

IT IS a solemn thing to draw nearer and nearer to eternity; you teach us how to meet old age. With each year you have become more and more genial, have cherished larger and still larger sympathies with your fellowmen, and if time has set on you any mark, you preserve in all its freshness the youth of the soul. What remains but to wish you a long-continued life, crowned with health and prosperity, with happiness and honor? Live on till you hear your children's children rise up and call you blessed. Live on for the sake of us, your old associates, for whom life would lose much of its lustre in losing you as a companion and friend. Live on for your own sake, that you may enjoy the better day of which your eye already catches the dawn. What faith discerned the Saviour, crowned with thorns and tottering under the burden of the cross on which he was to die. The social skeptic sees America sitting apart in her afflictions, stung by vipers at her bosom, and welcomed to the pit by "earth's ancient kings," but through all the anguish of her grief you teach us to behold her in immortal beauty, as she steps onward through trials to brighter glory. Live on to enjoy her coming triumph when the acknowledged power of right shall tear the root of sorrow out of the heart of the country, and make her more than ever the guardian of human liberty and the regenerator of the race.

ENGLAND IN ONE OF THE MOST MOMENTOUS POLITICAL CRISES OF MODERN WORLD'S HISTORY

Liberal Party has Faith in Asquith to Pull Through —Factors in the Situation—The Labor Situation and Other Matters Discussed for Times' Readers
—Prince of Wales May Pay Visit to Canada

(Times' London Letter)
London, Nov. 10—England, without fully realizing it, perhaps, is at this moment in the midst of the most momentous political crisis of modern history. There is, little excitement, because the average Englishman has a settled faith in the capacity of his political leaders of both parties to steer an even keel, and to pull through without incurring disaster. The Liberal party at least has unbounded faith in the honor and sagacity and courage of Mr. Asquith.

Parliament opened on Tuesday, but as the crisis had then been reached, the house adjourned and the entire programme of business was abandoned and some promising and interesting measures had to be dropped in the face of the overwhelming constitutional issues created by the failure of the conference to agree on the Lords' veto.

The Liberal party, by a substantial majority a year ago gave Mr. Asquith and the present government a mandate to deal with the House of Lords' veto. The Liberal party pledged in April last that if the Lords failed to accept their policy and if they did not have a guarantee which would secure that in the new parliament the will of the nation as expressed at the election should be passed into law, then the Liberal government would resign, or a new government would be formed.

A Reason for Liberal Hopes
Many electors who disagree with the government's home rule and fiscal policy will not vote for the Liberal party at this juncture, since the issue is not one of ordinary party differences, but one of principle, and the Liberal party, and the admission of England's surrender of the people's liberty to the control of an unrepresentative House of Lords. This is the reason why the Liberal party, which may, however, be reckoning without the timid reactionaries in the community who set their faces against an election, and who may be animated with the old spirit of feudalism and the old spirit of the House of Lords, will not vote for the Liberal party.

It is to be noted that at the last election, whereas now, it is not protection vs. Free Trade, but the Lords' Veto vs. Home Rule which will be the foremost issues. We know not what a day will bring forth, and both parties are leading the people to concentrate their attention upon the coming struggle. The papers and the people can think of nothing else, and the mighty heart of London is beating with the issue.

Confidence is felt in the sagacity of King George and it is remembered today that the House of Lords is well known to the editorial staff of The Times. A great number of politicians, however, are not so sanguine. The three little daughters of the solicitor general were bridesmaids. Hamar Greenwood lay away his sister and among those present in the church were the prime minister and Mrs. Asquith, Mr. Haldane, minister for war, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Chamberlain, Lord Courtney, Sir J. Simon, solicitor general, and Lord Strathcona. The bride's bridesmaid will be remembered as well known to the most energetic and eloquent supporters of free trade and radicalism on English platforms, and at the next election he is to contest a constituency for Liberalism. The bridegroom, on the other hand, is a prominent tariff reformer who has already contested and been beaten at Wolverhampton and is expected again to stand in the Tory interest at the forthcoming election.

WEDDINGS
Perry-McKinney.
The residence of Alfred McKinney, 401 Douglas avenue, was the scene of a pretty wedding at 5:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon, when his daughter, Florence Ethel Perry, of this city, Rev. B. N. Noble, pastor of the Victoria street Baptist church, officiated. Immediately following the ceremony, a wedding supper was served. The bride, who was unattended, wore a gown of blue tulle, with gold lace and jewel trimmings. Her going-away suit was of king's blue velvet, with gold lace and jewel trimmings. Her bridesmaids were Misses M. G. and M. J. Douglas, and Misses M. G. and M. J. Douglas.

LET YOUR STOMACH HAVE ITS OWN WAY

Do Not Try to Drive and Force It to Work When It is Not Able or You Will Suffer All the More.

You cannot treat your stomach as some men treat a balky horse; force, drive, and try to make it do what it is not able to do. The stomach is a patient and faithful servant and will stand much abuse and ill-treatment before it "balks," but when it does you had better go slow with it and not attempt to make it work. Some people have the mistaken idea that they can make their stomachs work by starving themselves. They might cure the stomach that way, but it would take so long that they would have no use for a stomach when they got through. The sensible way out of the difficulty is to let the stomach rest if it wants to and employ a substitute to do its work.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will do the work of your stomach for you and digest your food just as your stomach used to do when it was healthy. You can prove this by putting your food in a glass jar with one of the tablets and sufficient water and you will see the food digested in just the same time as the digestive fluids of the stomach would do it. That will satisfy your mind. Now, to satisfy both your mind and your body, take one of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after eating—at all what you want—and you will feel in your mind that your food is being digested, because you will feel no disturbance or weight in your stomach; in fact, you will forget all about having a stomach, and you will feel as though you were a healthy boy or girl.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets set the natural elements of the stomach and the natural digestive fluids of the stomach. It makes no demand upon the stomach, and it makes no demand upon the stomach. They thus relieve the weak stomach of all its burdens and permit it to become strong and healthy.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are for sale all druggists at 50 cents a box. They are so well known and their popularity is so great that a druggist would be soon tired of being out of stock. In fact, physicians are prescribing them all over the land, and if your own doctor is real, he will tell you that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are the best thing for a weak stomach. There is nothing on earth so good for dyspepsia as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

BANK CLERKS IN CANADA ORGANIZE

Some Criticism Because of Suggestion of Secrecy—A Hint is Offered

(Toronto Mail and Empire).
The Bank Clerks' Association of Canada is being organized. According to circulation of a circular, the association is to be formed by uniting together all the employees of the different banks into an association for their mutual benefit, protection, improvement and advancement.

The Montreal Times says that the association is not organized with any hostile intentions towards the banks, but, on the contrary, would be of great assistance to them in their dealings with their employers. The membership fee is to be $10, which is estimated, will be required for organization expenses. One of the conditions of membership is that the membership shall be kept secret as long as desired.

What is the object of such secrecy? If it is hostile, it will probably be met with hostility. If it is friendly, hostility will be created as the result of the accusation of proper cooperation. The suggestion of bank clerks obviously one day would meet the general managers. What would be the final result of that meeting, an attendant at which will be a half-hearted association organized in secrecy, and without the support of employers? Those who have already subscribed to this cause may well ask for the return of their subscriptions, frankly approaching in stead their employers, saying: "We would like an association and we want your help." The proposed secret vote, roundly abused, and understood method now being employed will surely damn what might have become a good cause.

LECTURES ON SUNDAY BY CITY SPEAKERS

D. Mullin, K. C., Interests Manly by Talk on Daniel O'Connell—Joseph Harrington—"Forerunner of Tuberculosis."

With a comprehensive sketch of the life of Daniel O'Connell, the Irish Liberator; a clear and instructive summarizing of the political conditions in Ireland as O'Connell found them, fought them and left them; and with a well presented summary of events which led to the present situation in regard to home rule, Daniel Mullin, K. C., last evening held a large audience deeply interested for an hour and a half in the G.M.B.A. rooms, Union street.

It was the second of the winter series of lectures under auspices of Branch 194, St. P. O'Neil, president of the branch, was in the chair, and at the close of the lecture presented to Mr. Mullin a hearty vote of thanks, moved by R. J. Walsh and seconded by Joseph Harrington.

Mr. Mullin referred to others who had done great work for Ireland and contrasted them with O'Connell. In support of the claim for the latter's greatness, he dwelt upon the rich record of history and the words of prominent men of the time—evangelical opponents of O'Connell—giving him the name of one of the world's greatest orators.

From his birth in 1775, through his student days until at twenty-three he became a barrister, the lecturer traced O'Connell's life, and pictured the conditions under the penal laws, which he had to overcome even to secure an education. His work in parliament and in his profession received recognition from the lecturer, as did his fight for emancipation of the large part he took in other legislation for the benefit of his country. Through his career he traced him to his start of the agitation for repeal of the union, and the audience heard of the gatherings of 100,000, 500,000 and at one time, at Tara, a million people assembled in support of O'Connell's cause.

Mr. Mullin in the course of his lecture, quoted, with fine effect, from one of O'Connell's chief supporters, Shiel; and from Thomas Francis Meagher, on subjects which were closely connected with Ireland and her troubles. He gave a brief but concise review of Ireland's political history from period a few years before the union of 1800 down to the present day. Facts and figures were given relative to the decline of population, and the great increase in taxation. Hon. Mr. Gladstone's temperance crusade, and the expression of all the self-governing colonies that Ireland should be given her independence as they had. Home rule, Mr. Mullin declared, amid applause, was never nearer than now and Liberal victory in the coming elections in Great Britain meant the realization of Ireland's hopes.

The lecture was greatly enjoyed and served to make the C. M. B. A. cause well acquainted with the speaker. It was inaugurated by Judge Carleton, firmly established in favor. Dr. T. H. Lunnely will be the next speaker.
