Famous Critic Thinks His

Hands Are Not in Good Shape.

A detail of the rounds of the Bartley Madden-Harry Wills fight in New York recently leads to several conclusions, says Doc Almy, the two uppermost being that either the colored man's hands are in such shape that he did not dare take a chance of in juring them, or else the several postspanements of the bout had resulted in his training himself stale.

Seemingly Madden went into the right of the Martley Company with his concended in his training himself stale.

Seemingly Madden went into the original stale of the Giants with Barl Coombs on base, the Yankees had did very little aggressive work, concenting himself with backing away or covering. Ordinarily, it would be difficult to handle such a chap, but the founds point that Wills succeeded in landing both lands frequently. His lows, however, had little effect.

The bout will hardly afford boom material for the much-discussed and long-postponed argument with Dempsey and Pirtypo. This is not saying that the Brooklyn challenger for the title will not defeat the Argentinian in the event of their meeting, but it will be a case of outpointing him rather than nything like the decisive job put over yo Dempsey. As concerns the chambolon, unless he deteriorates treemplously and Wills improves wonderfully between now and their slated clash one time in the fall, the chances of heir being another colored holder of her world's heavy title aggressive to the world will be aggressive work being have been a constituted to the constitutions. Already this year he has added the chamber of the Grant the weakness of the Barve's pitching staff, the Chicago and the weakness of the Barve's pitching staff, the Chicago and the weakness of the Medrawites from meeting the chase of the Heads the Bruins from meeting the same of the Medrawites from meeting the chamber of the St. Louis Brookly the control of the case of the Mentale phase on the control of the case of the Mentale phase on the control of the case of the Mentale phase on the c

Of course New Yorkers and those who frequent the Eastern tracks are more or less prejudiced. They are somewhat peeved to think that the East has not as yet produced a three-year-old that looks as if he might even field his own with Black Gold.

Acadias Defeat Olympics by Narrow Margin in League Game.

The Acadias defeated the Olympics in a fast and exciting game of ball on the King George diamond to the tune of 11 to 10. The Olympics are a new team just entering the league and are a fast aggregation of ball tossers. They promise to put up a hard tussle of the promise to put up a hard tussle of the promise to put up a hard tussle of honors. They are good hitters as they showed last night for just when the Acadias looked like winners they started slugging and did not stop until the South End League game last just for just when the South End League game last just for just when the South End League game last just for just when the South End League game last just for just when the Acadias came through with a lone tall; the South End League game last just for just when the Acadias came through with a lone tall of the features of the game were home runs by Philips and Totten getting his when the bases were empty and Totten getting his in the fifth in ling with two out and the bases clogged. "Today this Ford Truck took a drink of Fundy and she skims up hills she wouldn't look at yesterday on the next best gas."

It was Arthur McKinnon talking, which makes it unanimous for the three Pacific drivers and Mr. Donegani, who has it in his

The wide demand for Country Club Ice Cream takes Pacific trucks over all roads near and far. All gasolines have had lengthy tests, favoring Fundy every time from every angle.

"Steadier — peppier — smarter starting—smarter pick-up and you can cut down the carburetor with it."

Mr. McKinnon found Fundy supreme all winter in Gaskin's Transfer, adding they could never have managed the travel they did with any other.
