Lt. Col. Ronald A. McAvity
Manager Commercial Department

Prominent in Business Circles and Former Chairman of Civic Power Commission

Ronald A. McAvity, former chairman of the Civic Power Commission, has been appointed manager of the commercial department of the New Brunswick Power Company and will assume his duties on next Monday. He will have full charge of the retail gas and electrical appliances department, and of the contracts for gas and electricity.

Mr. McAvity has had a wide business experience, in Saint John, Upper Canada and New York. After graduating from McGill, he joined the Canadian Buffalo Forge Co., with whom he remained for three years. Coming back to Saint John, he identified himself with the firm of T. McAvity & Sons, and was with them for a number of years, in the latter of which he was managing director of the Rothery's avenue plant. For the first two years of the Civic Power Commission he was chairman of that body. He has also been with the New York Puritan Mortgage Corporation of New York and the Executive Service Corporation, New York.

The years of 1914 to 1919 Mr. McAvity spent overseas in the Great War and was mentioned in despatches. He was gazetted Lieutenant-Colonel on April 4, 1923, and now holds that rank. He enjoys much popularity and many friends will wish a large measure of success for him in his new position.

J. S. LORD, M. L. A. GOES TO TORONTO

Takes Position There—Will Return For at Least One Fredericton Session

James S. Lord, M. L. A., has announced to the St. Croix Courier, says that paper, that he has decided to accept a position with the Toronto branch of his company, the Canada Life Assurance Co., had been holding out to him for some months. Mr. Lord has been considering this tempting offer for some time, his friends have known, but it was not until this week that he gave his head office a definite answer.

Mr. Lord has been a resident of St. Stephen for 19 years and was elected to the local legislature as a county member at the recent election, by a large majority. He will return later, he announced, and take his place in the Legislature for one session at least.

MUST GET LICENSES

Robert Harris, city vehicle inspector, said this morning that the forms which the taxi men had to sign before making application for their 1926 licenses were now ready and could be secured from himself or at the office of the Commissioner of Safety. He said the former licenses expired on December 31, last and those who had not taken out new licenses by the first of next week would be reported and dealt with in the police court.

PRESENTATION MADE

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cobham, of Dunn avenue, West Saint John, last night entertained about 50 friends at a farewell party for Lieut. Byron Cobham, who has been spending the Christmas holidays with his parents and left this morning to resume his duties in Montreal. George Maxwell, on behalf of those present, made the presentation of a purse of money and other gifts to Lieut. Cobham, who thanked his friends heartily. The evening was pleasantly spent with games and music. The hostess was assisted in serving refreshments by Miss Cobham and Miss K. Fox.

GRATITUDE SHOWN FOR FIRE RESCUE

Two Firemen of Hook and Ladder Receive Boxes of Nice Cigars

Recognition of a prompt and brave act in the rescue of a young woman from the third story of the residence at the corner of Union and Prince Edward streets during a fire on the night of Dec. 28, came yesterday to the two firemen who performed this meritorious service—Driver Charles McClusky and Tillerman James Mills, whose posts are on the large ladder truck of No. 1 Hook and Ladder Co., King street east.

The matter was referred to in the account of the fire at the time, but the unassuming men who had carried the young woman to safety from the smoke-filled apartment by way of the window regarded it just as a matter in line with the fireman's duty. The young woman thought differently and she made inquiries as to the names of the rescuers and sent to each a box of 50 choice cigars. There was a pass-around of the smokes last evening among the men of the station.

ON INSPECTION TRIP

James Ford, chief clerk in the auditing department of the C. G. M. M., with headquarters at Montreal, arrived in the city this morning from Halifax on a regular inspection trip.

SEAMAN HELD AT CAPTAIN'S WORD

Declares Some of the Crew Threatened to Cut Him to Pieces

Waiter on Italian Vessel Here is Assured Safety by Commander

Giovanni Pasutti, an article seaman employed as a waiter on board the Italian steamship Valleyscura, was charged in the Police Court this morning by the captain, Batolomeo Dolibeco with absconding himself at divers times between Dec. 28 and Jan. 7 from the ship, and with refusing duty on board the ship. He was remanded to jail by Magistrate Henderson.

Both parties were at a loss for English, and John de Angelis was procured as an interpreter. Through him, Capt. Dolibeco told the court that he had signed Pasutti on in New York and that Pasutti had left the ship when it arrived here and had returned, then left again on last Tuesday, and had not been seen again until yesterday, when Capt. Dolibeco had seen him in the Police Court.

THREATENED, HE SAYS

Pasutti, in his defence, stated that some members of the crew had threatened to cut him into little pieces with a knife if he remained on board. The court then asked him why he had laid no complaint against the crew, and Pasutti said that that had been his purpose in coming to the Police Court this morning.

Magistrate Henderson then asked Capt. Dolibeco what he wished done with the man, and he received a request to put Pasutti in jail and keep him there until the Valleyscura sailed. The accused asked what guarantee he would have for his personal safety when he went back to the ship, and the captain guaranteed that he would personally see to it. This satisfied Pasutti and he was remanded.

REV. J. UNSWORTH WEDS AT WYCLIFFE

Rector of St. George's, West Saint John, and Miss D. Smart Married

Wycliffe College chapel, in Toronto, says the Toronto Star, was the scene of a pretty wedding Tuesday evening, when Dorothy Smart, of London, Ont., was united in marriage to Rev. John Unsworth, rector of St. George's church, West Saint John. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. McIntyre and Rev. Canon O'Meara, principal of Wycliffe College. The bride, who was given away by Mrs. G. P. Harrison, London, looked very smart in a gown of white Canton crepe with embroidered veil and wreath of orange blossoms. She also wore a pearl necklace, the gift of her groom, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lily of the valley.

The bride was attended by Miss Laura Dore, who wore a French frock of orchid georgette and black picture hat and carried a bouquet of chrysanthemums to match her frock. Henry Coleman was best man and Messrs. Stringer, Alexander and Pocock acted as ushers.

A reception was held at 528 Huron street, when Mrs. Harrison and Mrs. F. G. Hilling, Brantford, received the guests, the former wore black crepe satin with blue and silver trimmings and hat to match. Mrs. Hilling was gown in grey cut velvet and grey hat and carried violets and roses. The bride traveled in an ensemble suit of very blue silk with squirrel furs and hat to match.

MORE LICENSES FOR AUTOS OUT EARLY

Some 600 in Saint John so Far—Warning That Law Must be Observed

The provincial authorities intend to take action in the matter of 1926 auto licenses. George L. Ingram said last night. There will be no time allowed. All cars, according to the Motor Vehicles Act, must be licensed from Jan. 1, and the act imposes a penalty of from $15 to $200 for infringement. The number of licenses issued through the local office is far in advance of other years, about 600 having been issued to date. In three days last week the office here forwarded more than $9,000 to Fredericton, $949 being taken in on a single account. The total number of cars in the province is approximately 17,000, with 4,900 business cars and trucks and 41 motorcycles.
