

this Society
sted to conn of sq good

H. WEBB,
s, Esq. It

the office-
with power to

William Pryor,
justice; Hon.
; Secretary,

ev. P. G. Mc-
e, Rev. G. M.
ev. Principal
Forrest, Rev.
J. Uniacke,
Rev. John
ickard, D. D., B. Pitblado,
n Read, Hon.
Selden, Esq.,
ompson, Esq.,
Lynch, Esq.,
apean Clarke,
C. D. Hunter,
B. Morrow,
a, Esq., T. B.
ost, Esq.

REPORT.

Once more the Committee of the Nova Scotia Auxiliary Bible Society greet their friends and patrons at the Annual gathering. While they recount with gratitude and thankfulness the labours of another year, as they think of the increased and increasing circulations of the Book towards which they have rendered a little, and their faith in the words of the Inspired Prophet would be strengthened. "The word of our God shall stand for ever."

Reserving in the meantime the notices of our Auxiliary, we shall hurriedly glance at the operations of the parent Society.

The great changes in France resulting from the late war, have to a considerable extent, affected the work of Bible Circulation. Many of the Colporteurs had been drafted into the army, and while some few of them have been spared and resumed the more pleasant work of circulating God's Word, others have fallen in the Battle-field, and some have turned their attention to other pursuits. There had not been more than thirty-five Colporteurs labouring, where a year or two ago, double this number of labourers have been employed.

It was only at the beginning of this year that the new Agent, Mr. Gustave Monod, had begun his labour