The Country Marker this week has not been very abundantly supplied, and odoubt it will not be heavily stocked till the snow comes; prices remain about the same as those of last week. Eggs and turkeys are perhaps a shade lover, the former selling at 20 to 24 cents adozen and the latter at 12 to 13 cents per pound. A Grand Art Sale and Cheopian bunt under the patronage of the 'hawkadaw of Umbawlah will be held at the church hall on Tuesday and Wednesday, the 9th and 10th inst, at 5 o'clock each evening. Refreshments will be served by seven distinguished Caucasian waiters, formerly in the service of Confictus. This novel attraction will be worth visiting as some very interesting features will be presented.—Fredericton Gleaner. On a Strike.—The employes in Messrs. Miller & Woodman's shingle mill are on a strike. Yesterday the firm informed their men that their wages would be reduced 10 per cent for the winter season.
