St. Petersburg, June 19.—Vice-Admiral Skrydloff's message to the Emperor, de-tailing the successful operations of the Vladivostock squadron, will, it is believed, have an excellent moral effect. Fifteen thousand tons of shipping was destroyed, together with troops, crews and valuable supplies. It will also be necessary to divert a considerable sec-tion of Admiral Togo's fleet in an atvostock squadron or to protect the line of sea transport, concerning which the Japanese until recently felt so secure.
