Children's Wash Dresses

On Sale Monday

They are new traveller's samples, one-of-a-kind and soiled from handling. They are fresh and new, with a generous assortment of sizes in all lines.

Materials, in white, mull and lawn; in colored, percales, chambrays, gingham, reps, light weight duck and grass linen.

The styles are Hubbard, Buster, French and original.

The white have cool little elbow sleeves, square or round necks, and every variety of trimming from the simple buttonhole edging at neck and sleeves to elaborate insertions of fine laces, Swiss medallions and ribbons. 75c to $4.25.

The colored—Beginning with a pretty little Buster dress in pale blue or pink chambray, with white piping, at 50c. (1 to 5 year sizes) they include far more varieties than we have space to tell you about.

Contrasting pipings, bias folds, buttons, combinations of plain materials with plaids or checks—all these make a fascinating collection of little garments whose highest price is $2; even so many styles around the vicinity of $1.

Sizes for ages from 6 months to 10 years, but not every style at all these ages.

Reefer Coats

Light weight duck; white, pink, cadet, sky, tan and navy, with deep collar, cuffs and pocket tops of pique, either all white or white with navy pin dots. 1 to 5 year sizes.

A Great Snap In Cups and Saucers

Besides picking up new ideas in the China and Glassware way, on his recent trip, our buyer had his weather eye open for China bargains. He secured a number of them and the first of them has arrived.

It's a lot of Cups and Saucers. They are the balance of a great importing house's stock. And we bought them very low. They are going to be cleared out at an equally great price concession. In some cases there are only one of a kind, in many four or five, and the quantities vary from this up to a few dozen of a kind.

The decorations vary from a dainty floral spray up to the heaviest gilt and hand painted designs.

The prices, well, there is such a wide range that it is out of the question trying to give you an idea of the value we are offering. Come and see the display and see the great price reduction.

These Cups and Saucers are on display in our North Shop Window.

JOAN'S LETTER.

Who should handle the pay envelope—John or Mary?

Happiest home where wife is the financier.

Children naturally look to mother as head of the household.

Despite housecleaning, many pleasant functions this week.

Pretty May wedding, celebrated and many more to come.

All the week's happenings in Joan's Letter.

A recent magazine article, who should handle the pay envelope—John or Mary? Mary, by all means, thinks the editor.

Why? Because John is out all day and comes home late at night, and she is the one who has to handle the household finances.

For the matter of that, he doesn't care whether meat has gone up another cent or whether eggs fetch a dozen. He wants to play with the children and enjoy the quiet of the home and the society of his wife.

Keyed up to a sense of her responsibility, she appreciates the value of every cent that is spent, and womanlike, will be certain to provide for the inevitable rainy day.

The most prosperous and happiest home is where the wife is the financier.

Let us look at the other side—the case where the husband prefers to do the house standing, though his wife is particularly competent to run the household expenses and have her bank book.

Suppose she wants a silent handkerchief and a few spoons of thread. John is at home for a real reason. He asks her husband, or "can we afford a pair of shoes for me this week?"

Pretty humiliating, isn't it? Hardly fair, to use a mild expression, to her who has to run the family. And yet, there are men, men, men, in other words, who never will believe that the wife should have the financial running of the household expenses, and the result is that she becomes an irresponsible figurehead, so to speak.

As the housewife, she is worth her while to know about the cost of living not to keep down expenses. Such a system tends to make a woman inexperienced and inefficient—where the mother fails short in these essentials its effects will have a harmful influence in the family.

Children naturally look to the mother first to supply their needs, and when she cannot send them to the father they want a new pair of stockings it soon follows that these irresponsible and obedient young people have a stable income on their mother's count for very much more than themselves at home. And though the thought may never enter their minds, it is a fact that the mother is the one who is the most responsible person in the family.

Several pretty weddings were celebrated during the week, notably that of Miss Rosemary Walsh to Mr. J. A. Macdonald, which took place on Wednesday, in St. Mary's Cathedral.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. J. A. Macdonald, of Bedford, N. S., and the groom is a son of Mr. J. A. Macdonald, of Bedford, N. S.

Miss Winifred Bennett was another of the week's brides, married to Mr. W. L. Bennett, of Bedford, N. S., on Thursday.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. W. L. Bennett, of Bedford, N. S., and the groom is a son of Mr. W. L. Bennett, of Bedford, N. S.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Bennett arrived home this week from an extended trip to Vancouver, Victoria and Toronto.

Mrs. F. W. Hoyt returned this week from a visit to her home in Boston.

C. E. Tanner, M. P. P., and Mrs. Tanner, left yesterday for Fergus, N. S.

Have you noticed catarrh? It is easily recognized by the dry cough and hoarseness. New difficulty to cure with Catarrhinol, Dr. J. A. Macdonald, of Bedford, N. S., has a cure for it.

I had a hard hacking cough that would not leave me. I tried everything, but nothing helped. I had great distress in my chest. Catarrhinol reached the sore spot and gave immediate relief. I am now well and happy. Every throat who is troubled with catarrh should try it. Sold everywhere $1.00.

People are so busy with things pertaining to domestic life, housecleaning, changing residence and so forth, that social functions are for the time being, relegated to the background. There have been, however, some pleasant happenings in the form of weddings, and a number of small informal affairs which were quite enjoyable.

The Golf Links are in full swing and the membership this year is a large one. I am told that arrangements are being made for some interesting matches with various provincial clubs during the season.

The Wexford Club has a large membership list this year and already there have been some pleasant little tea parties and luncheons on the grounds.

Everyone will be pleased to hear that the tea-room which was run by Mr. J. A. Macdonald, has been successfully managed at the Public Garden, will be held there again this season.

There could be no more ideal surroundings in which to enjoy a cup of tea, and so the Public Garden, which, by the way, are already taking up the hue of Summer.

To-morrow, I should say, would be "Tulip Sunday," as the ladies around the lake stand are in all their glory of variegated bloom.

Mrs. Troup and Miss Georgina Troup, of New Haven, who spent the past week at Bridgeton, returned home yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Harris and family moved on Thursday to their new bungalow at Bedford for the summer.

Mrs. John Terman and family moved to their summer residence at Bedford on Thursday.

Dean and Mrs. Abbott, who have for the past week been the guests of Bishop and Mrs. Worrell, leave for Hamilton on Monday.

Mrs. Tucker and her daughter, of Pictou, N. S., who were visiting the city, are staying at Hillside Hall.

Mrs. Stimpson has moved to Hillside Hall for the summer.

Mr. A. W. F. Smith is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Tremaine, Church street.

Mrs. Edgar Skill returned to Sydney on Monday.

Mrs. F. Plunkett, of Lowell, Mass., is at the Grosvenor, is receiving a cordial welcome from her many friends here.

Mrs. Bradford Terman has rented a cottage at Bedford for the summer.

Mrs. Eustice Moore and the hostess of one of the prettiest teas of the week on Wednesday afternoon. The decorations were entirely in white, their gay and varied shades giving a brilliant note of color to the charmingly arranged tea table.

Mrs. J. J. Ritchie poured tea.

Mrs. R. Galloway entertained at a very much enjoyed bridge and tea at her pretty residence across the Acacia on Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Newwood Duffin gave a very successful dinner party at the Hillside Hotel on Wednesday evening in honor of General O'Brien, who is a son of Mr. Duffin.

Mrs. Worrell was "at home" on Monday, the reception being for Dean and Mrs. Abbott.

Mr. George Tracy arrived home on Thursday from a week's trip in England and on the mainland. While at the Hague Mr. Tracy visited Mr. John T. Litcher.

"The Capital" had the "dress rehearsal" on Thursday night in the Academy of Musical, and all in it, the performance, beginning Monday night.

The Ladies' Rifle Club has this season's shooting season, then held at the club house, on Sunday.

Next week will have busy time for the Women's Auxiliary of the Church of England, who will convene on Wednesday, May 22nd, at 8 o'clock, in the hall.

Proceedings will open on Monday, May 20th, at 8 o'clock, in the hall, on the subject of "The Church of England in the Twentieth Century."
