Mrs. Armstrong in a canon. The remains of Mr. Armstrong and his daughter were found some distance below, one in a tree top and the other in some high rocks.

The boys have not been discovered. It is surmised that a sudden flood caused by the melting of snow swept away the house and the position of the bodies served to confirm this belief.

A Complicated Case. Harry Ricardo, of Meaford, Ont., testi-fies that he suffered from rheumatic gout and chronic trouble of the stomach and liver, which Burdock Blood Bitters effect-ually cured, after all other tried remedies had failed.

"Well, Bartley, are you going to old Hardell's funeral?" "Oh, I don't know. I'd like to go, but have hardly the time to spare, Jack," "Oh, well; you had better go. Let's all turn out and give the old man a good send-off. It'll tickle him to death to know he had a big funeral." Quinine and Chills.

Quinine is the popular remedy for chill fever, but it does not always cure. Esquire Pelton, of Grass Lake, Michigan; took in all 600 grains of quinine for chronic chills and malarial fever. After that and various other remedies had failed, five bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters cured him.

· Most of the Parnellite members of the House of Commons have gone to Ireland. Parnell and T. P. O'Connor remain in London, and will stay until after the dissolution. When parliament has been dissolved the national league will hold a general meeting in Dublin for the purpose of considering the general situation. The meeting will issue a manifesto to the Irishmen of Great Britain. Gladstone will start from London on his Midlothian campaign tour to day. black mule, bitten a few weeks ago by a mad dog, was seized yesterday morning with rabies, and caused a panic in the city. The beast attacked its owner, bit ing him on the head and seizing his hand with his teeth, dragged the man 200 yards, until the hand was nearly severed from until the hand was nearly severed from the arm. The mule then charged through the streets, attacking every person and every object it met. All the inhabitants took to flight, and for half an hour the brute remained complete master of Avignon. Five peasants who tried to escape from the market place were badly bitten in the legs and back. One of them who took refuge on a lamp post, had his foot nearly bitten off. A squad of gendarmes finally killed the beast. All the wounded will be sent to Paris to be inoculated by M. Pasteur.
