Bernard Wright, of Digby, an employee of the Ingwood Pulp Co., Musquash, while chopping near the camp several days ago, severely injured his foot, nearly severing two toes. As no surgical attendance could be obtained nearer than Fairville, the injured man rode five miles on horse back to a farmhouse, where a team was obtained to bring him to Fairville. Dr. McKeasland dressed the wound and Mr. Wright left for his home in Digby.

FIREMEN FINED.

For Hurrying Over the Bridge to Fairville to Help Put Out the Big Fire.

In the police court this morning Hassan Brown, driver of No. 6 hose cart, Alex Johnston, driver of No. 4, and E. B. Alward, No. 3, were fined five dollars each for furious driving on the Suspension bridge on the evening of the 27th ult. It was explained that the men were ordered out to assist the Fairville firemen to subdue the flames that wiped out an entire block and were instructed that their carts were needed there as quickly as possible. The men say that with the heavy smoke and dense fog they had no idea as to the extent of the fire and considered it their duty to get there as quickly as possible. Two of the carts, 3 and 4, went over the bridge together. They were reported by the caretaker, Robert Burns, who was present in court, he was going, but was Chief Engineer Kerr, of the fire department.

Mr. Burns said that there was no visible sign that the bridge had been injured, but the wild dash of the teams across it caused it to sway considerably.

His honor, in imposing the fine, said it would be allowed to stand, and warned the men against repeating the offense. Chief Kerr said that if a driver did such a trick again he would discharge him.

John Mahoney, who was reported by Officer Collins of the I. C. R. police for trespassing on the I. C. R. property, was allowed to go after being severely lectured for his offense. Mahoney is an old man and very feeble.

One drunk forfeited a deposit of eight dollars and a couple of others were fined four dollars each. Stephen McKenney was charged with drunkenness, which he denied and Officer Marshall stated that when he arrested him, shortly after midnight, he refused to tell where he was going, but later in the lock-up said he was on his way to join the night shift on a steamer that is loading lumber here. Mr. McKenney's wife was in court and said that her husband went to work about 7.30, he came home about midnight and had something to eat, and started out again to go to work. McKenney said he had one glass of ale, that was before eight o'clock. He was allowed to go with a warning.

T. Fred Johnston, V. S., who was charged by Officers Crawford and Perry with furious driving, said he was not going at more than five miles an hour. The horse was one that had been in the lively stable business for about eleven years and he did not think it could go at a furious rate. As the officers were not present Johnston's statement was accepted and he was excused.

PROVINCIAL LORD'S DAY ALLIANCE.

On Monday next (6th inst.) the annual convention will be held in this city. At 1.30 p. m. the general executive will convene, and at 3 p. m. a public business session will be had. These will be in the Y. M. C. A. parlors. At 5 p. m. a grand public meeting will be held in the school room of Trinity church. Canon Richardson, the president, will be in the chair at all meetings. In the evening addresses will be given by Rev. Principal Patrick, of Winnipeg; Rev. G. M. Milligan, D. D., of Toronto, and Rev. G. J. Shearer, B. A., the general secretary. Good music may be expected. All who propose to attend may certainly calculate upon a delightful evening. A collection will be taken.

FIRST OF THE JUNE BRIDES.

Several Loving Couples United in Marriage Today.

June 1904, Which Promises to be a Record Month, Starts Out Well.

RANKINE-LAWTON.

One of the most fashionable weddings of the season took place at 2.30 o'clock this afternoon in St. Andrew's church when Miss Olive Lawton, daughter of the late Robert Lawton, was united in marriage to Harry, son of Frank Rankine, of the firm of T. Rankine & Sons.

The large edifice was thronged with the relatives and numerous friends of the contracting parties. The bride's young lady friends had tastefully decorated the church and flowing ribbons marked the pews reserved for the invited guests. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Day Lang.

The bride was attended by Miss Minnie Olivan, her half-sister, Miss Emma Rankine, sister of the groom, and little Olive Burrell, of Yarmouth, as flower girl. E. B. Patterson, of New York, supported the groom.

The bride wore white satin with a veil of real lace and orange blossoms. The bridesmaids wore dresses of pineapple gauze over white silk trimmed with lace and wore white picture hats with white feathers. The flower girl was attired in white and carried a basket of daisies.

The ushers were G. Biliard, Gordon Sanction, W. A. Lockhart and Douglas Seelye.

At the conclusion of the service a reception was held at the residence of the groom's father, after which the happy young couple left for New York and St. Louis.

Upon their return they will reside at Mrs. C. W. Bell's, Coburg street.

MUNRO-WETMORE.

In St. Paul's church this morning Miss Louise C. Wetmore, daughter of T. C. Wetmore, of Queen street, was united in marriage to James Munro, traveller for Manchester, Robertson & Allison. The ceremony was performed at 10 o'clock by Rev. A. G. H. Dicker, in the presence of quite a large number of friends.

Miss Wetmore wore a travelling suit of navy blue, trimmed with white, and hat to match. She was attended by Miss Kate Munro, sister of the groom, whose gown was of white lace and orange, with white picture hat.

Daniel McKinney supported the groom. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Munro left by the early C. P. R. express for Boston and New York. Upon their return they will reside at 153 Queen street.

Miss Wetmore received many nice gifts.

BREEN-RUBINS.

The home of John Rubins, 43 Harrison street, was the scene of a happy event this morning when his daughter, Miss Ethel Grayley Rubins, was united in marriage to Hudson Morrill Breen, the popular proprietor of the Boston Restaurant on Charlotte street.

The ceremony was performed at 10 o'clock in the presence of relatives and friends, by the Rev. R. P. McKinn, rector of St. Luke's church.

The bride was unattended. She was becomingly attired in a wedding gown of white organdie. Her going-away dress was of navy blue silk poplin, trimmed with lace and white picture hat.

The wedding gifts were numerous and beautiful.

The young couple left on the C. P. R. express at noon for Pt. du Chene, whence they will pass over to Prince Edward Island and spend their honeymoon.

WALSH-OWENS.

In Holy Trinity church at seven o'clock this morning, Rev. J. J. Walsh officiated at the marriage of John Walsh and Miss Della Owens.

The bride was attended by Miss Annie Gaines and the groom by D. Fohy.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Walsh returned to the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Thomas Owens, 38 Paradise Row, where the wedding breakfast was served. They will reside on Brindley street.

The marriage will take place this evening at the residence of Mrs. R. F. Potts, of Miss Mabel Vaughan Potts, daughter of J. W. Potts to Wm. E. Neveas, of Charlottetown.

The ceremony will be performed at 8.30 o'clock by the Rev. Dr. Sprague. The bride will be attended by Miss Pearl Clark and the groom will be supported by J. B. M. Baxter.

MACRAE-RICHARDSON.

At the city of Quebec today the marriage took place of Rev. Donald L. Macrae, formerly of this place, but now of Forest City, Minnesota, to Miss Bella Richardson, of Quebec. The ceremony was performed by the groom's father, Rev. Dr. Macrae, one pastor of St. Stephen's church, of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Macrae will take up their residence at Forest City.

THIS EVENING.

A night with Moore, by St. Vincent Alumnae Society, at York Theatre. B. Co. 62nd Fusiliers parade for drill.

Will be performed by Minnie Robertson Mission Band at Queen square church.

Meeting of St. John Rifle Club. Opening session of general assembly as St. Andrew's church.

HALF-HOLIDAY ASSURED.

Clerks Say That All But a Few of the Leading Merchants Have Agreed.

The half-holiday has now become an assured thing. All except a few of the leading merchants and store keepers in town have subscribed to the scheme. The clerks are naturally pleased over the success of their efforts, but at the same time they have nothing but praise for the merchants who have so cheerfully agreed to the half-holiday.

The inauguration of the half-holiday during the months of July and August will necessitate the changing of pay day from Saturday to Friday. Many establishments in the city already pay their employees on Friday and the attempt is being made to induce all establishments to follow the same plan.

With a view of furthering this resolution have been passed by the different working bodies, including the Clerks' Association.

The half-holiday movement is sweeping from one end of Canada to the other. Employers and employees in nearly every Canadian city of any size are co-operating for a few hours of freedom every week. Both say they need a brief weekly cessation from work on some workday and declare that the benefits of it are not to be neglected.

Not only are many leading Canadian concerns advocating the summer half-holiday, but they are advocating as well a daily early closing. Toronto is taking the lead in this.

FIRES IN MAY.

Last Month was a Busy One for City Firemen.

The month of May was quite a busy one for the firemen. The Carleton firemen had their share of fires in May, as the following record will show:
