ALBERT CO. COURT.
Albert county court was opened at 10 a. m., Oct. 25, by Judge Wedderburn. No causes were ready for trial.
There were three cases of appeals from summary conviction: William Turner, appellant, v. William White, respondent; Sprague Wilson, appellant, v. George H. Steadman, respondent, and Nicholas Pearson, appellant, v. Edison E. Peck, respondent.

The two former cases were over to next term by consent. The latter was an appeal from a conviction of Police Magistrate Stuart of Hopewell, made against Nicholas Pearson for cruelly and unnecessarily ill-treating a cow belonging to Provincial Consultable Pullerton of Albert. The animal had been driven from her pasture and was left outside the barn, on the side of the highway, while her owner prepared the stable for her reception, and Pearson, who was a constable, arrested the cow, being carried on the highway, a distance of 307 feet from the stable. The owner interpreted the officer called for assistance and got the animal to the pound, but could not get her in. It was proved that the cow was chased, held and beaten alternately for from a half to three quarters of an hour. The street was thronged by some fifty men and boys.

The Law and Order League was called into requisition, and its secretary, E. E. Peck, took the matter into his police court, which resulted as stated.
Judge Freeman appeared for the defence. The prosecutor appeared in person. In the county court W. A.
Treuman and C. A. Peck, C. A. appeared for the appellant. The respondent appeared in person and took the objection that the notice of appeal was directed to the convicting magistrate only and not to the prosecutor.
The objection was sustained and the appeal dismissed.

IS IT A TRIFLE?
That Common Trouble, Acid Dyspepsia or Sour Stomach.

N. W. Recognized as a Cause of Serious Disease.

Acid dyspepsia, commonly called heart-burn or sour stomach, is a form of indigestion from fermentation of the food. The stomach being too weak to promptly digest it, the food remains until fermentation has set in, filling the stomach with gas and a bitter, sour, burning taste in the mouth is often present. This condition soon becomes chronic and being an every day occurrence is given but little attention.
Because dyspepsia is not immediately fatal, many people do nothing for the trouble.

Within a recent period a remedy has been discovered prepared solely to cure dyspepsia and stomach troubles. It is known as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and is now becoming rapidly used and prescribed as a radical cure for every form of dyspepsia.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets have been placed before the public and are sold by druggists everywhere at 50 cents per package. It is prepared by the Stuart Chemical Co., Marshall, Mich., and while it promptly and effectually restores a vigorous digestion, at the same time it is perfectly harmless and will not injure the most delicate stomach, but on the contrary, by giving perfect digestion, strengthens the stomach, improves the appetite and makes life worth living.

ferns and autumn leaves, the artistic arrangement reflecting much credit on the young ladies of the congregation who performed the work. After the regular service appropriate to the occasion, the Rev. Mr. Smith delivered an edifying and eloquent sermon from the last verse of the 90th Psalm. The preacher traced the relation between the natural kingdom and the kingdom of heaven on earth, and emphasized the value and importance of work in the vineyard, referring in touching language, at the close of his discourse, to those who had preceded him in the Albert mission, many of whom, after a life well spent, have now passed to their reward. Special

Rev. Mr. Todd preached his farwell sermon in the Baptist church on Sunday week at the usual hour. Mr.
Todd celebrated his fiftieth year in the ministry on Sunday, the 16th instant. Mr. Todd has married about 80 couples. He has baptised about 1,700, has buried over 170, has declared about 100, and in that fifty years he has only missed one appointment on account of sickness. Mr. Todd has also been blessed financially. He was for many years one of the leading ministers of the denomination, and has now the future of the church.
Further back, approaching his four score years, still possesses much of the vigor of his youth, and has the prospects of many years of useful labor among his friends. Eleven of those whom he baptized became ministers of the gospel.

The Rev. Mr. Spurgeon has gone for several weeks to help the Rev. Mr. Hilyard in holding revivals at William Holman, one of our local butchers, had a cancer removed from near his left eye yesterday by Dr. McAllister, who recently began practicing here. Holman is the man who had his front teeth blown out by a revolver in the hands of Robt. Dryden a few weeks since. He seems to bear his misfortunes bravely.

The somewhat sudden death on Sunday morning of "Doc" H. Hazen, who has only been in Sussex a resident of Sussex, was a surprise to his many friends. The cause of his death was congestion of the lungs and other complications. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Scoville Needles and the remains were interred in Kirk Hill burial ground. Mr. Hazen was well known in this community, where he had removed from Waterford, and his death is regretted by a large circle of relatives and friends.
