YOUNG JOCKEY REAL STAR

MACK GARNER

Mack Garner, the youngster who is under contract to ride for J. L. Holland and who has just got out of the apprentice class, is considered one of the most promising jockeys in the country. He is only sixteen years old, but has won thirteen races in the last year of his apprenticeship. Born in Centerville, Iowa, nearly seven years ago, the lad is one of five brothers, all of whom are making their living in the saddle. Up to date here he has ridden twelve winners. From what has been seen of him here he is strictly a rail rider and a nice hand of free running horses, and apparently a keen judge of pace.

but three hits and Cleveland shut-out St. Louis in the first game of the series today, winning, 6 to 0. Seven errors by the locals, four of which were charged to Lavan, paved the way for four of Cleveland's six runs. The score:

St. Louis ..... 00000000—0 3 7
Batteries—Mitchell and Agnew; Wolfman, McCabe and O'Neill.

M'FARLAND FACES HARD
GRIND TO MAKE WEIGHT

Chicago, Aug. 31.—That Packey McFarland, south side welterweight, who is matched to meet Mike Gibbons of St. Paul, in a 10-round bout at the Brighton motorhome in New York on September 11, intends to be in the best condition before he leaves for the battleground next Saturday was indicated yesterday when he made the statement that he would start on the last lap of his hardest training today. McFarland is not down to stipulated weight, 147 pounds, which both boxers must make of three o'clock on the day of the contest. Packey was frank to admit that he had several pounds to take off, but he would not step on the scales or tell his exact poundage. He merely said he was eight to ten pounds overweight.

Trains Even on Sunday
After finishing a long workout, something he never did before on the Sabbath in his long career, McFarland said he would cover from eight to ten miles on the road every day and put in at least two hours of gymnasium work in the afternoon. In addition to this set programme, Packey will box at least eight rounds with his stable of sparring partners.

A visit to the South Side gymnasium revealed that McFarland is taking this match seriously. He realizes that he will meet one of the cleverest fighters in the game and that it will take the best he has to win a popular decision over Gibbons. McFarland has eliminated the kid boxing tactics in vogue while training for other contests. He goes through his training stunts in a businesslike sort of way and never stops hard work until he has put in two hours at the grind.

Still Has Old Speed
During his long layoff Packey took on weight. He is bigger all over and from present indications he may have as much trouble getting down to weight as Gibbons. Packey does not seem to have lost any of his old-time speed and cleverness, despite the superfluous avoirdupois, and he appears to be hitting harder. It is his intention to develop his punching power during the week and a merry time appears in store for his sparring partners.

The local boxer manager, and trainer, who will leave for New York on Sunday night. A training camp will be established in one of the suburbs of Gotham and Packey will do just enough work to keep down to weight. He will do light boxing, but no work of any kind which might result in an injury to his hands.

Packey will not venture an opinion on the result. He realizes Gibbons will be an opponent hard to beat, and he also knows it will be the hardest and toughest fight of his career.

Grand Circuit Racing
Yonkers, N. Y., Aug. 31.—The first Grand Circuit trotting meeting seen here in five years opened today at Empire City Park here. Continued rains made the track heavy and tiring to the horses and public form was completely upset.

In the $5,000 race for 208 trotters, which was the feature of the programme, Lee Axworthy, 2:03 1/4, better to unbeaten this season, was defeated in crushing style by Peter Scott. In the heavy going the colt that won the fastest three-beat race on record at Cleveland a fortnight ago, could do no better than take third money when the heats were in 2:09 3/4, 2:10 and 2:09 3/4. There was no starting at the third meeting. Owing to the heavy track Directum I did not start to beat his record of 1:58. He will start on Thursday. Summary:

Are Foreign Beers British?
No, none of them. Therefore it is not reasonable when patriotism and loyalty claim so much of our attention, that we who have been in the habit of using foreign Beers should seek out a substitute of British origin? Here it is:—

READY'S LAGER BEER
Not only British, but a home product of sterling worth. After using READY'S once you have no hankering for foreign Beers, and it costs about half.
