SIX MACHINES TOOK PART IN THE FIASCO

German Airmen Took No Chances in Inland Towns—Berlin Report of Raid Typical Piece of German Fiction.

London, Aug. 3.—Six German airships took part in the raid on the eastern counties of England, this morning, according to an official announcement issued this afternoon, which says eighty bombs are reported to have been dropped. Nine horses were killed and three horses were injured, the statement adds.

The text of the official statement follows: "Several hostile airships attacked the eastern and southeastern counties last night. The first reports were received about midnight. From these, it seems that not less than six airships were attacking the counties of Norfolk, Suffolk and Essex, more or less simultaneously. The raid lasted about an hour and a half.

Keep To Coast. "Except at one point, the raiders did not penetrate very far inland, but contented themselves with dropping a few bombs at a time on widely distant localities, mainly near the sea. Several bombs are reported to have fallen into the sea.

"Anti-aircraft guns came into action in one locality, but the raiders there attacked made good their escape.

"In conjunction with this attack, one airship was making for the coast of Kent. Many observers report that a second airship followed the first. The number of bombs dropped in this attack makes the statement appear quite possible. Anti-aircraft guns came into action, and one, if not two, hits are claimed against the first raider.

"A total number of eighty bombs have been accounted for up to date, including those seen falling into the sea. The total damage was astonishingly small. Nine horses were killed and three others injured. The military object of the raid is not apparent.

Couple Sighted on Dutch Coast.

Yanulden, Holland, Aug. 3.—The 11, one of the Zeppelins which flew along the Dutch coast, was apparently damaged. Her motors were working badly, and there was a heavy list. The Dutch coast guards fired on her and they believe that she was hit.

For Home Consumption.

Berlin, Aug. 3, via London.—The raid last night by German Zeppelins resulted in the dropping of a great number of explosive and fire bombs on London, on the feet base at Harwich, and on industrial establishments on the county of Norfolk, says an official statement given out here today.

"During the night of August 2, a great number of our naval ships again attacked the southeastern counties of England and successfully dropped a great number of explosive and fire bombs, especially on London, on the feet base at Harwich, on railway works, and on, from a military view, important industrial establishments in the county of Norfolk. On their approach the airships were attacked by enemy light forces under the rays of numerous searchlights, but all returned undamaged."

False From Beginning To End. London, Aug. 3.—In regard to the official statement from Berlin on the air raid last night, the British press bureau says: "The press bureau is informed officially that the German statement is untrue virtually from beginning to end."

London Saw No Raiders.

London, Aug. 3.—Investigations made here fall to bear out the German claims that the last two Zeppelins raided London. Many people from all parts of London and the suburbs have reported they have not seen or heard any Zeppelins or any guns. Whenever Zeppelins have reached London or the suburbs in the past the news spread quickly, and there was no difficulty in finding plenty of witnesses to testify to their presence.

DOMINION WILL SELL BONDS TO IMPERIAL TREASURY

New Arrangement Entered Into Between Dominion and British Treasury will be of Great Advantage to Both—Plan Embodies Propos Is Made Last Fall by Sir Thos. White to Representatives of British Treasury.

Special to The Standard. Ottawa, Aug. 3.—A transaction of the greatest importance to Dominion and Imperial war finance has been concluded between the Minister of Finance and the British treasury. For a period after the outbreak of the war the Canadian government borrowed the greater part of its war expenditures from the Imperial government. Subsequently, by reason of improvement of the revenues in the Dominion and the successful flotation of its loans on this side of the Atlantic the Dominion became able to finance its war expenditure in Canada and also to assist the British government in financing here its purchases through the Imperial Munitions Board. For over a year now the Dominion finance department has borrowed from the Imperial treasury only the amount represented by our expenditures in Great Britain and at the front. All advances so far received from the British government have been entered in the book of the Dominion as temporary borrowings.

Sell Bonds to Imperial Treasury. Under the arrangement which is now being made the Dominion government will pay off from time to time its temporary indebtedness to the British government by the issue to the Imperial treasury of Dominion bonds bearing the same rate of interest and having the same maturities as the issues of the Imperial government from the proceeds of which the advances have been made. The amount of the bonds will be calculated having regard to the issue price of the Imperial securities. In a word, the Dominion government will without any flotation expenses, fund its temporary indebtedness by the sale of its bonds to the Imperial treasury bearing interest at the favorable rate at which the Imperial government has been able to borrow at the London market since the outbreak of the war. The Dominion government bonds will be payable in dollars and all necessary adjustments of exchange will be made. On the whole the exchange has been most favorable to the Dominion. The first transaction will involve the extinguishing of over one hundred millions of temporary indebtedness of the Dominion by the issue to the British treasury of three and one half per cent., and four and one half per cent. dollar bonds maturing in 1928 and 1945. These Dominion bonds will not be sold but will furnish the base of Imperial banking circles in United States and Canada from which payments will be made on this side of the Atlantic.

The arrangement thus greatly assists the British government in its financing of the purchases of munitions and supplies for which dollar credits are necessary. The plan embodies the proposal made by the Minister of Finance to Lord Reading, and the representatives of the British treasury when in New York last fall, arranging for $500,000,000 Anglo-French loan. The minister in view the purpose of clearing up by the issue of permanent securities the floating indebtedness of the Dominion and at the same time providing the Imperial government with the best of collateral for banking advances. The Dominion securities will, of course, not be sold but will continue to be owned by the Imperial government.

How Thin People Can Put On Flesh. Thin men and women—that big, hearty, filling dinner you ate last night. What became of all the fat-producing nourishment it contained? You haven't gained in weight one ounce. That food passed from your body like unburned coal through an open grate. The material was there, but your food doesn't work and stick, and the plain truth is you hardly get enough nourishment from your meals to pay for the cost of cooking. This is true of thin folk the world over.

Your nutritive organs, your functions of assimilation, are probably sadly out of gear and need reconstruction. Cut out the foolish foods and funny sawdust diets. Cut out everything but the meals you are eating and eat with every one of those a single Sargol tablet. In two weeks you note the difference. Let the scales be the judge. Five to eight good solid pounds of healthy "stay-there" fat may be the net result. Sargol aims to charge weak, stagnant blood with millions of fresh new red blood corpuscles—to give the blood the carrying power to deliver every ounce of fat-making material in your food to every part of your body. Sargol, too, mixes with your food, to prepare it for the blood in an easily assimilated form. Thin people tell how they have gained all the way from 10 to 25 pounds a month while taking Sargol and say that the new flesh stays put. Sargol tablets are a careful combination of six of the best assimilative elements known to chemistry. They come 40 tablets to a package, are pleasant, harmless and inexpensive. All good druggists in this vicinity sell them subject to an absolute guarantee of weight increase or money back as found in every large package.

If you find a druggist who is unable to supply you, send $1.00 money order or registered letter to the National Laboratories, 74 St. Antoine street, Montreal, and a complete ten days' treatment will be sent you postpaid in plain wrapper.
