SATURDAY EVENING, JAN. 8, 1871

The Dissolution.
Nobility, except out and out partisans, justifies the conduct of the Mackenzie Government in dissolving Parliament without meeting it after having allowed so much time to elapse since they attained office. By bringing on the Ministerial elections they virtually pledged themselves to meet Parliament.
The professions on which they attained power were such as to point to an immediate dissolution, but they scandalized many ardent admirers and stifled themselves by determining to keep the Parliament against which they had made charges so grave. But they have gained more confidence since, and have strong reasons for gaining an increased Ontario majority. The Government—that is, Messrs. George Brown, Blake and Mackenzie, for the wishes of the Maritime members of the Cabinet were utterly ignored in the matter—voted (Ontario has one more vote in the Cabinet than was ever given her before) that no bill could longer be cramped and hampered by the necessity of depending on the votes of the Maritime members for support, and the dissolution is the result. The genius of the Government is Ontario, the vitality of its party is Ontario, the policy it is to pursue is Ontario policy, and it must give Ontario an opportunity to send up to Ottawa a majority so large that the protests of Maritime members or Ministers may be safely ignored.

Writing by Proxy.
Many amusing stories are told at Washington about the writing of speeches, addresses, and letters to constituents for members of Congress by impecunious correspondents. One of the most amusing is the adoption of an anti-slavery letter denouncing the conduct of Chaplain Pierce of the Senate, toward some recovered fugitives, by an honorable member from Albany, who signed his name to it, and sent it to the Strolling Asser, of that city. When it came back to Washington in print, Chapman signed it, and sent it to the Strolling Asser, and he was obliged to go to the writer of the letter to reply to the attack upon it. When the Albany Congressman was asked why he did not sign it himself, he replied, "It was so savage that the Albany Congressman now in the United States Senate got hold of it, signed the Representative's name to it, and sent it to the Strolling.
Its appearance terrified the apparent signer, and for weeks he sneaked up to the Capitol through side streets, to take a basement door. Another story is told of a correspondent who sold two copies of a speech containing pertinent remarks on Representatives, each one of whom read it, at a different time from the other, during an evening session. As neither one heard the other, the duplication was not discovered until the remarks of the next morning's edition of the Daily Globe, the only difference being in the name of the author.—"Washington News," in Harper's Magazine for January.

Shatters Tea Off.
The bloods in Portland, when they go on a time, frequently amuse themselves bearing off shatters. A party on New Year's night enjoyed themselves in this way, and relieved a harness maker's shop on Portland Bridge. The trait proprietor had offered $30 for the arrest and conviction of the offender.

Shipping Notes.
The schooner Tempo—Captain Scott, master, of the schooner Tempo of this port before reported abandoned at sea, makes the following report: Left Sagua Dec. 15, with a cargo of mortars and bound for Portland, Me.; had fine weather up to the 19th, then a succession of gales from N. W., S. E., and N. E. drove us up to the 23rd, causing a heavy cross sea and the vessel to strain heavily; the wind then gradually decreased and hauled to the eastward; at 6 p. m. quite moderate; at 8 p. m. wind increasing; at midnight vessel under close reefed sails; at 1 a. m. wind increased to a perfect hurricane and a heavy sea running and the vessel straining heavily; the water having gained a depth of four feet in the hold, notwithstanding the pumps were constantly kept going. At 2 a. m. the foremast was carried away and the foremast by the deck, bringing with it the jibboom and part of bowsprit; the mainmast next went below decks, tearing up the deck and breaking the pumps above decks, thus leaving the vessel in a perilous condition. The decks were repaired by the aid of bedbolts; the other masts did not fall; the pumps were next repaired and kept going by part of the crew, while the others were engaged clearing away the wreck in order to prevent any further damage to the vessel. At 8 a. m. saw a vessel standing towards us, immediately making signals of distress, but, owing to the heavy sea running, she could not render us any immediate assistance. At 11 a. m. the wind decreased considerably and the sea smoothed, and the vessel therefore lay lowered and sent to us, which took us safely on board the vessel. She proved to be the bark E. D. McNeill, from Havana, of and for New York. We were accepi-ly half an hour on board when the vessel shifted to S. E. and blew a gale from that quarter. Had we not got off at the time we must have all perished over the Temp, and the water fast gales in the hold. The vessel was in lat. 35 58 N. long. 74 17 W. when we parted company. The vessel was laden with sugar, and the crew retained their most sincere thanks to Captain Tuohy for saving us up on the Temp, and for his active services, and also for the kind treatment which they received while on board.

The bark E. D. McNeill, at Vineyard Haven 20th ult, from Salt Cay for Boston, reports having experienced heavy easterly, northerly and westerly gales the entire passage; lost 175 bales of sugar, split other sails, and had decks swept.
The bark Boomerang, Seaward, master, at Barbadoes 11th ult. from Bridgewater, N. S., reports had a succession of heavy westerly gales; lost light sails gales the entire passage; lost light sails boarded deck load and a portion of under deck load; vessel leaking badly.

The brig Regina, supposed from Turks Island for New Haven, put into Nassau, no date, leaky.

The S. F. Mason, of Liverpool, N.
S., Comd. master, was wrecked on the 7th Nov., on the south side of St. Domingo, and has been condemned and sold for cargo.

The schooner A. C. comes from New-Orleans, N. B., up to 81st ul., reports the schooner A. C. Watson still ashore. The wreckers are working day and night before an easterly storm occurs, in which case she would prove a total loss.

Total Disasters in December.—The number of vessels belonging to, or bound to or from ports in the United States, reported totally lost and missing during the month was 25, of which 19 were wrecked, 6 abandoned, 8 sunk by collision and 4 foundered. They are classed as follows: 2 steamers, 3 ships, 9 barks, 1 brig, and 13 schooners, and their total value, exclusive of cargoes, is estimated at $1,000,000.

Steamers—Ville du Havre, sc, Havre; Virginia, f, Glasgow. *Ships—*Arabia, f, Glasgow; Lochearn, s, Glasgow; *Barks—*Brown, f, Boston; Berke, Belvidere, w, Bridgewater, N. S.; Chancellor, s, London; Carolina, s, (Hull); Glenora, s, London; Friendship, s, Sunderland; Catharine, Dodge, s, Genoa; Max, w, Denton; Waino, w, St. John, N. B.; John Hunter, w, (at Yagua, Cal.); Arizona, w, (in Chester Bay).

The ship Catalina Hines, Davies master, from Savannah, N. B., wrecked, dragged her anchor and went ashore on Tybee beach about noon on the 29th ult. She remained ashore until night, when she was gotten off and proceeded to sea on the 30th.

The ship Charles Bell, of this port, grounded at Queenstown during a gale on the 29th ult., but was towed off; damage unknown; vessel tight.

The brig Silas Abard, Smith master, from Bermuda for St. Mary's, Ga., before reported ashore at St. John's Bay, Florida, was got off on the 28th ult. The vessel is perfectly tight.

Caution.—Hypophosphites.— phites.—As this preparation is entirely different in its combination and effects from all other remedies called Hypophosphites, the public are cautioned that the inventor, James I. Fellows, is written with red ink across each label, and the price is $2 per bottle. Fellow's duced, and it is a thoroughly orthodox preparation.

City Police Court.
There was no great excitement at the Court this morning. At the opening the Magistrate looked upon seven prisoners and a few spectators, who, having nothing better to do, had dropped in for a little while to see the performance.
Patrick Donnelly confessed to being drunk in Sydney street, and was fined $4.

Helen Ryan was charged with drunkenness in Princess street, and also with being a common vagrant. She confessed to being drunk, but wanted to be let off on account of it being so near the "Happy New Year." The Magistrate took a different view and sent her to gaol for the first two months of the glad new year.

Florence McCarthy was in the station New Year's Day, but was let go. He appeared again this morning, and denied being drunk in Sydney street and carted to the station. It was proved that he was mistaken, and a fine of $6, or two months in the penitentiary, was imposed.
Thomas Leary got uproariously drunk, and was arrested in Mill street while cursing and swearing at a lively rate.
Previous to being arrested he called at John Hamilton's house in North street.
Mrs. Hamilton asked him to take a chair.
He took the chair and struck her over the head with it, and called her some very bad names. Mr. Hamilton interfered and Leary resented such interference by picking up an axe and striking him over the head. Quite a large crowd was invited, and Mrs. Hamilton, while in court, devoted her attention to it and kept the hair back so it would be visible. A fine of $6 was imposed on Leary for his confessed drunkenness, and information was laid by Hamilton for the assault.

Charles Moore, for simple drunkenness in Water street, was fined $4.
(Case of Matted man.)
George Woods, an able bodied man, went to the station for protection. He was warned to get work, and find a home, or one would be found for him where there would be very little intercourse with his fellow workmen.
Francis O'Riada was arrested in Brittain street, having in possession a tub of butter which was supposed to have been stolen. He denied stealing the butter, and said he had bought it from a man who won it at a raffa, for $5, but he did not know the man. The butter is supposed to have been taken from the railway station as it has the railway mark and "H. Barnes" upon it. The prisoner was remanded until further inquiries are made.

PLASPOFFETTING.—Mr. Carson Floyd has secured the services of Mr. C. E.
Bourne, of Boston, a practical planoforte builder and tuner. Orders left at the Warerooms, No. 75 Prince Wm. street, will be attended to in the order respected.

Portland Police Court.
There was no business before the court this morning, except the examination of Brentley Munroe, who is charged with an indecent assault on Jane McCarthy.
The court-room was crowded, and the street in front of the building was occupied with a crowd. From the evidence of the complainant, Jane Mc-Carthy, a young woman 25 years of age, it appears that the assault was committed on New Year's night. She was returning from the city, and about 10 o'clock, Munroe overtook and accosted her, but refused to say anything to him, and endeavored to escape. He then attempted to throw her down and she resisted and screamed. No one came to her assistance.
He threw her down after a long struggle, choked her and threatened her, but she filled his base designs and escaped. The woman swore positively that it was the prisoner who committed the assault. F.
A. Morrison, Esq., who appears for Munroe, subjected her to a searching cross-examination, but her testimony was not shaken in the least.

DR. J. E. GRIFFITH, Dentist, desires to inform his friends and patrons that owing to the many fatal accidents lately recorded, arising from the use of chloroform, he has totally discarded its use in his office, and substituted the nitrous oxide or laughing gas as a much safer as well as more pleasant agent for the painless extraction of teeth. Dental office 72

Auction Sales.
Messrs. Lockhart & Chipman sold at auction, at 11 o'clock this morning, on the premises, all the winches, blocks, rigging, screws, junk, tools, &c., belonging to the rigging loft of the late T. Wil-iams, on Desbrow's wharf. There was a lively gathering of junk dealers and riggers, and after some spirited bidding the articles were knocked down at fair prices.

They also offered for sale, at Clubb's corner, at noon, 22 acres of land, together with the buildings and erections thereon, situate in the parish of Lancaster. E.
McLeod, Esq., Assignee of the estate of the late Hugh Morris, on behalf of the latter claims all right, title and interest in the property, forth the sale. Mr.
Hugh McQuirk, who claims the property by reason of a warranted deed conveyed to him by the late Hugh Morris in 1868, bid in for $5,000, there being no other offers. The same property is to be offered for sale at the same place on Wednesday next by Mr. McLeod.
