The Government announces the fact that they have appointed a delegate to proceed to England and complain to the Imperial Government of the manner in which the Canadian Government are fulfilling the Union terms. They deny having refused Mackenzie's offers as made by Edgar, but Edgar being unable to produce authority, except to hear the views of Columbia Government upon the matter, the Governor telegraphed to Mackenzie asking if his Government would be bound by Edgar's proposition.

Mackenzie refused to reply, and immediately recalled Edgar.

The modification terms were not even discussed, consequently were not refused.
