OBITUARY.

It is our sad duty to record the passing away of our esteemed townsman, Mr. John F. Hanson at the age of eighty-five. With the exception of a short attack of rheumatism several years ago, Mr. Hanson was never ill in his life, having a remarkably robust constitution, but he had grown gradually more feeble during the winter and passed away suddenly and peacefully on Sunday, April 21st after a slight attack of bronchitis. He was a man of sterling character and most kindly disposition with only a good word for every body.

Mr. Hanson was born in Charlotte County, N. B. in 1832, the third son of the late John and Rachel Hanson, at the family home which is entailed, as this original property of 500 acres, had been bestowed by the Government of Fredericton upon his great grandfather in recognition of his 14 years of service with the British Army in the American Provinces. This John Hanson who came to N. B. in 1777 had fought in many encounters with the French and Indians and was among the first to scale the Heights of Quebec when the English took that city from the French. When the Revolutionary war broke out, he was called upon to serve against his king, but his loyal British blood rebelled at this and he left the new England coast at night in an open whale boat with two others and landed in St. Andrews, where there were then three log cabins—his family following when the war was over. He first owned "Ministers Island" close to St. Andrews, the present property and summer home of the family of the late Sir Wm. Van Horn—later he received the deed from Fredericton which is still in existence.

This was the only member of the large family of Hansons to come to N. B. from New England where they had lived since 1657 coming from England and known there first in 1251. John Frederick Hanson, of Kentville, went early in life to Carleton Co. where with two brothers he did a large business in buying and shipping the produce of the country at Richmond near which he owned a farm and had lumber interests. When the Railway went from Richmond and branched thru Woodstock and Houlton instead, he, later, moved to Waterville Maine from which place after the death of his eldest son John Harold, he moved to Kentville in 1881.

Mr. Hanson married in Richmond, N. B., Mary Russell, daughter of the late Hugh and Mary Russell of Scotland. His youngest son, Murray died in Kentville. His surviving children are Herbert, unmarried, now at Bramshott camp England and Alice wife of Ralph S. Eaton of Hillcrest, at whose home he passed away and where he has lived since he gave up active business. Of his eight brothers four are living, Jacob in N. B., Duncan in California, Judson in Truro, and Spurgeon in Seattle; and two sisters Mrs. A. J. Walker, of Truro and Mrs. Hanson in St. Andrews.

Five years ago Mr. and Mrs. Hanson celebrated their golden wedding. We tender our sincere sympathy to the family who mourn the loss of a devoted husband and loving father and a much loved brother.

Sewell Corbitt and Charles Anderson of Port Lorne come to Kentville lately to work at Carpentering at the N. S. Sanatorium.
