

CONTENTS.

PREFACE.

Chapter

1. What it is to be a Nurse. - By MISS FRANCES EATON POPE,
Graduate of the New York Hospital.
2. The Probationary Term. }
3. The Training Term. } - By MISS ANNE A. HINTZE,
Supt. Training School and Hospital, New York Infirmary
for Women and Children.
4. Graduation and "First Case." - By MISS MARY A. SNIVELY,
Supt. Training School, Toronto General Hospital.
5. /Private Practice. - By MISS MARY A. SAMUEL,
Directress of Nurses, Roosevelt Hospital, New York.
6. Hospital Employment. - By MISS MARION E. SMITH,
Chief Nurse, Philadelphia Hospital.
7. Private Sanitarium Employment. - By MISS ANNA ALSTON,
Ex-Supt. Training School, Mount Sinai Hospital, New York.
8. District Nursing. - By MISS LILLIAN D. WALD,
Head of the Nurses' Settlement, New York City.
(With Specimen pages from a District Nurse's book of cases.)
9. Obstetric Nursing. - By MISS EMMA J. KEITH,
Ex-Supt. Training School, St. Luke's Hospital, Utica, N. Y.
10. Nursing the Insane. - By MISS EMILY J. MACDONNELL,
Supt. Training School, Albany, N. Y., Hospital.
11. Massage. - By MISS ELIZABETH D. HOLT,
Matron Craig Colony, Sonyea, N. Y.
12. Male Nurses. - By MISS EUGÉNIE HIBBARD,
Ex-Supt. Training School for Male Nurses,
Grace Hospital, Detroit.
13. Taking Notes—"Charting." - By MISS ANNA L. R. MINES,
Instructress of the Christian Workers, Brooklyn, N. Y.
(With Specimen pages from a Hospital Chart.)
A Chapter for Superintendents and Matrons.
By MRS. ANNA M. LAWSON, Supt. New York Cancer Hospital.
Uniforms, Medals, Diplomas, etc. - By THE EDITOR.