

An Act to amend the Act for better securing the Independence of the Legislative Assembly of this Province.

WHEREAS doubts have arisen as to the true intent and meaning of the 11th Section of the Act passed in the seventh year of Her Majesty's Reign, and intituled, "An Act for better securing the independence of the Legislative Assembly of this Province," in reference to the issue of a new Writ of Election in cases where, after a General Election shall have been held in this Province, and before the meeting of Parliament, any Member who may have been elected at such General Election to serve in the Legislative Assembly of this Province, shall have accepted an office of profit or emolument under the Crown, or otherwise vacated his seat as a Member of the said Legislative Assembly; And whereas it is desirable to determine such doubts, and to make the practice of Parliament in this Province, with regard to the issuing of Writs to supply vacancies occurring in the Legislative Assembly by the acceptance of office or otherwise, conformable to the practice which obtains in England in similar cases; Be it therefore enacted, &c.,
