

X. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS:

150. Action against Returning Officer for not returning person duly elected.
151. Penalties how to be recovered.
152. Limitation of proceeding for penalties.
153. Mayors and Aldermen of Cities, &c., to be Justices of the Peace within the meaning of this Act.
154. Questions as to regularity of proceedings to be judged of by the Select Election Committee.
155. Omission by party of observance of affirmative directions not to render proceedings void.
156. If such omission affects justice of case party to be considered as having abandoned his case.
157. If such omission does not affect justice of case, Committee to deal with it as justice may require.
158. Non-observance by House, &c., Committee, &c., of affirmative directions not to make proceedings absolutely void.
159. In case of such non-observance by Speaker, &c., Committee or Commissioner, &c., parties may be taken into custody of Sergeant-at-Arms, and otherwise punished by being made to make satisfaction to parties, &c.
160. Unprovided cases how to be disposed of.
161. Repeal of present Acts.
162. Short title of Act.

SCHEDULES.

A.

1. Recognizance on behalf of Petitioner.
2. Recognizance on behalf of Sitting Member on application for Commission.
3. Recognizance on the behalf of Petitioner for permission to defend.
4. Affidavit of sufficiency of securities.

B.

1. Commission for the examination of witnesses.
2. Similar Commission where new Commissioner appointed in consequence of original Commissioner not being able to act.
3. Commissioner's Oath.
4. Clerk's Oath.
5. Oath of Bailiff or other Officer of Commission.

C.

1. Acts of Lower Canada Repealed.
2. Acts of Upper Canada Repealed.