

Divorce Bills*—Continued.

be heard at the Second Reading, 79. Witnesses are summoned at the expense of the parties requiring them, and allowed their reasonable expenses, 80. When refusing to appear, they are taken into custody, 81. The Drafting and Printing of the Bill is at the expense of the parties; 600 copies in English and 200 in French are furnished to the Clerk; also a certificate, before the Third Reading, that the Queen's Printer has been paid for 500 copies in English and 250 in French, 82. A fee of Two hundred dollars is paid to the Clerk, on presenting the petition, 83. Unprovided Cases are determined according to the Rules and Decisions of the Lords, 84.

E

Entering the Senate—Senators bow to the Chair, 9.

Equality of Votes—See Casting Vote.

Evidence—in cases of Divorce Bills, 78.

Examination of Witnesses—See Witnesses.

Expedition, Unusual—sometimes allowed in passing Bills, 42.

Expenses of Bills or Witnesses—See Divorce Bills and Private Bills.

Explanations—of Senators who have already spoken, 22.

F

Fees—on Divorce Bills, 82, 83. On Private Bills, 59.

First Reading of Bills—takes place immediately after the Bill is presented, 40.

Friday Adjournments—until the Monday following, 7.

G

Galleries of the Senate—Motion that they be cleared of Strangers always in order, 11.