Quebec, Wednesday, September 15, 1852.

THE House resumed the adjourned debate upon the motion made by the Honourable Mr. Hincks yesterday, That an humble address be presented to Her most gracious Majesty, to assure Her Majesty that this House deeply regrets to learn from the despatch of the Right Honourable Sir John Pakington, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Colonies, that Her Majesty's Imperial Ministers are not prepared to introduce a Bill to repeal the Imperial Act 3 & 4 Vict. c. 78, intituled "An Act to provide for the Sale of the Clergy Reserves in the Province of Canada, and for the Distribution of the Proceeds thereof."

Mr. Brown moved in amendment, That the House deeply regrets that Government, in bringing the subject of the Clergy Reserves again before Parliament, has refrained from the expression of any opinion, as a Government, upon their future appropriation—the real issue of the question;

And a debate arising thereupon,

On motion of the Honourable Mr. Badgley, the debate was adjourned till to-morrow, and to be then resumed after the presenting of Reports of Committees.

Quebec, Thursday, September 16, 1852.

THE House resumed the adjourned debate upon Mr. Brown's amendment, which was yesterday proposed to be made to the motion made by the Honourable Mr. Hincks on Tuesday last, That an humble Address be presented to Her most gracious Majesty, to assure Her Majesty that this House deeply regrets to learn, from the despatch of the Right Honourable Sir John Pakington, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Colonies, that Her Majesty's Imperial Ministers are not prepared to introduce a Bill to repeal the Imperial Act 3 & 4 Vict. c. 78, intituled "An Act to provide for the Sale of the Clergy Reserves in the Province of Canada, and for the Distribution thereof;" and which amendment was, "That this House deeply regrets that Government, in bringing the subject of the Clergy Reserves again before Parliament, has refrained from the expression of any opinion, as a Government, upon any future appropriation—the real issue of the question."

Mr. Dixon moved, That the debate be further adjourned till to-morrow, and be then resumed after the referring of petitions.
