ACADIA-2 GOAL LEAD

The second period saw Dal again start well but fade as the Acadians a two goal lead. At 2:00 Dal took the lead for the last shot from the blue line that never hit the ice until it was in the net. Then the proverbial roof fell in. Acadians, 4 minutes later Burns found himself in front of an unprotected George MacDonald and fired a low drive past him. Hogan got the winner at 9:52 when he deflected Watt's long shot past MacDonald.

At 14:57 Drmaj skated centered to Steve Brown, who length of the ice and fed a per- son with some of was waiting by the open corner to fect pass to Bauld who fired the key of the year.

Whatever became of:

Nero C. Caesar,

Whenever conversation on the campus turns to music, someone is sure to mention the name of Nero Claudius - the man with the golden lyre. No other virtuoso on this difficult instrument has ever come close to the renown achieved by this boy from Antium. In his formative college years, Nero was something of a traditionalist, but at his apex he came very close to what moderns call "Le Jazz Hot". Those of his contemporaries and relations who survived the era he dominated - and they are regrettably few recall that in his final phase he was strangely preoccupied with torch songs. His career reached its peak in Rome in a blazing performance of his famous lyre solo against a trumpet obligato by a group of cats known as the Praetorian Guardsmen. Rome was never the same thereafter.
