Replace wedding march

Wedding vows between Kathryn Ann Zarfes and Timothy David Frawley were heard by the Rev. D.P. Gratton at St. Peter's Anglican Church on Friday evening, Aug. 7. Music from "The West Side Story" was played by organist Victor Spearen during the ceremony.

The bride, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Donald E. Zarfes, chose a full-length gown of white organza over satin in empire style, with long full sleeves and a chapel train. She wore a fingertip veil and carried white daisies and baby's breath.

The maid of honor, Sherida Durward, wore pale green cotton faille embossed with daisies, and a lacy wide-brimmed hat with velvet ribbon. The bridesmaids were Susan Rodenberg of Minnesota, Marcia Wait of Burbank, California, Vikki Birnbaum of Minneapolis, Louise Hawkins of Clarkson and Mairi-Jane Frawley, sister of the groom.

They wore soft yellow gowns in the same style as the maid of honor, with matching hats trimmed with yellow velvet ribbons. Carrying baskets of daisies were flower girls Helen Zarfes and Carol Frawley.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Frawley of Brockville, who formerly lived in Erindale. He was attended by his brother, Chuck Frawley. Ushers were Ed and Terry Frawley, Gordon Rosewarne, Wayne Brown and Robin Fennell.

At a reception at the Robin Dr. home of the bride's parents, Dr. Jean Zarfes welcomed 150 guests wearing a long dress of daisy-printed pale green linen, elbow length gloves and a wrist corsage. She was assisted by the groom's mother in a peach-colored floor length gown.

The bride and groom cut a three-tiered wedding cake decorated in yellow and white to complete the daisy theme.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Frawley will be attending Waterloo Lutheran University in Kitchener next term.
