

APPENDIX 'A'

~~Prisoner in Germany~~

WC CARLING-KELLY

Commanding Officer of No. 1 SFTS, Camp Borden, in 1943-44, who is officially reported a prisoner of war in Germany. He was reported missing after air operations some weeks ago. To go overseas a second time in this war, Wing Commander Fitzroy Cavendish Carling-Kelly reverted from the rank of Group Captain, which he held while in command at No. 1 SFTS. The good news received by his wife, 99 Chatsworth Drive, Toronto, recently was very welcome also to his many friends in Barrie.

APPENDIX 'B'

FINAL WING PARADE AT BORDEN TODAY

This afternoon at 1.30 o'clock a Wings Parade will be held at No. 1 SFTS, Camp Borden. This will be the final and largest wings parade and graduation ceremony of the Camp and will officially mark the conclusion of the British Commonwealth Air Training Plan.

More than 100 airmen will graduate, including RCAF, RAF, RAAF, RNZAF and RNAS. There will be an impressive parade on the tarmac with the aircraft of the School lined up and Group Captain J. B. Harvey will present the wings.

Similar ceremonies have been or will be held at other British Commonwealth Air Training Schools across Canada. While the graduating class at Borden today will be the final under the Commonwealth Plan, it is not expected this Camp will be closed. No announcement regarding the future of the RCAF Camp at Borden has yet been made.
