

275 Q: And have you got any brothers? A: Yes, got a brother home, one brother.

76 Q: And the brother that is with you. All right.

LI TAN. Sworn. Exam. by the Commissioner.

77 Q: Where did you come from in China? A: Sui Low.

78 Q: Where is that, and who told you to come to Canada? A: My cousin told me to come.

79 Q: Where does he live? A: In Vancouver.

80 Q: What is his name? A: Lee Pong.

81 Q: What does he do? A: He is a merchant.

82 Q: Did he write to you to come? A: Yes, he wrote to me to come to Canada.

83 Q: Have you got his letter? A: Yes; I got the letter with me in the trunk, inside.

84 Q: Can you go in and get it for me? A: Oh I could not find the letter he wrote to me. I could not find it, but we get a letter from Lee Pong's father in China; he gave me a letter to Lee Pong here.

85 Q: Lee Pong's father in China, gave you a letter to Lee Pong here? A: Yes.

86 Q: Can you go and get that letter for me? A: All right.

87 Q: Yes. You run in and get the letter, and bring it here...

(To Interpreter): You might translate this letter, will you please? A: This is Fong Yuen, Si Jung, Vancouver. Tell Tan's son, name Pong Gwee come by next steamer to pay poll tax. His mother home ask several times to give him work at our store Fong Goun. If he come at Vancouver, if he is good and act honest, then keep him in the store, and also if he satisfied working in the store. This letter sent by Si Fun.