

16. INFORMATION SERVICES

B-1

16-0 INFORMATION SERVICES

- Brochures re qualifications for each career and job available across Canada. (318)
- Federal government inform on the employment for women. (301,303)
- Establish regional and local levels of information on consultation services. (e.g. The independent Citizens Advice Bureaux in England.) (343)
- Provinces sponsor publication of present laws applying to women and children in layman's language and supervise distribution. (30,57)
- A national center of demography should be created. (129)
- Federal government should participate in international seminars and inform Canadians of the reports. (154)
- Referral bureaus to offer a spectrum of community resources. (189)
- A political guide should be edited to instruct women. (256)
- Information bureaus on rights of women, composed of lawyers, notaries, businessmen to advise women on family economy. (256,348)

B-2

16-0 INFORMATION SERVICES

- Inform women as how to be wise consumers. (305)
- Women's labour bureau should issue and distribute information on labour Legislation. (256)
- Information on women's moral and legal responsibilities. (225)
- Department of Consumers and Corporate Affairs should inform the public on advertisements. (49,196)
- Information re family benefits and protective legislation in employment. (63,203, 256)
- Government protection by information on drugs, credit, alcohol. (72,170)
- Information booklet on laws and regulations relating to separated and deserted families. (146)
- Pamphlets to inform public on situation of daycare services, the aged and handicapped. (160)

102

Royal Commission on the Status of Women in Canada,
Index to Briefs. (R.G. 33/89, Volume 10)

PUBLIC ARCHIVES
ARCHIVES PUBLIQUES
CANADA