April 13, 1920.

Dear Sir,

Mr. George A. Conley, a permanent Clerk of this Department, appointed in 1903, has been temporarily incapacitated from work, owing to an injury to his ankle. I inclose herewith the necessary medical certificate, from Mr. Craig.

I am allowing Mr. Conley two weeks' leave of absence, with pay. Mr. Conley has been absent 5 days during the previous 12 months.
Yours very truly,

Deputy Superintendent General.
