

NURSING SISTER CORA L. BALL
Was in Mt. Sinai Hospital, New York.
Went to France with American E. F.

NURSING SISTER EFFIE BOLSTER
Enlisted with Provincial Nurses from Regina, Sask. Left Canada Feb.,
1915. With McGill Unit, Boulogne.

NURSING SISTER B. BOURGAULT
Graduate of Water St. Hospital,
Ottawa. Went to No. 16 Canadian
General Hospital in France.

NURSING SISTER N. BROWNLEE
Went to St. John's V.A.D. Hospital,
Kent, Eng., July 30, 1917.

NURSING SISTER W. M. BYRNE
Enlisted on April 30th, 1915. Served in England and France. Was decorated in 1917 by His Majesty.

NURSING SISTER L. A. COWAN
Was two years overseas. Went to France.

NURSING SISTER VIOLET A. DAVIES
Graduate of St. Luke's Hospital,
Ottawa. Attached to Duchess of Connaught Canadian Red Cross Hos.

NURSING SISTER MARGARET FOULDS
Went overseas in 1915 and went to France.

NURSING SISTER MINNIE GALLAHER
Graduate of Protestant General Hospital.
Drowned when Llandoverly
Castle was sunk in June, 1918.

NURSING SISTER ELEANOR GRAHAM
Joined C.A.M.C., Aug. 21, 1917.
Returned March, 1919, and placed on transport duty

NURSING SISTER KATHLEEN GROVLS Served three years in France and spent 8 months in No. 2 Casualty Clearing Station.

NURSING SISTER C. KETTLES
Left for England March 19, 1917,
then went to No. 8 Canadian Hospital in France.

NURSING SISTER IDA F. W. LUSK
Enlisted in American Red Cross.
One year in Serbia, was there when captured by the Austrians.

NURSING SISTER JESSIE V. LUSK
Enlisted in No. 17 and served in No.
46 Hospital in France.

NURSING SISTER JENNIE MILLS
Enlisted in 52nd Battalion, and went to France.

NURSING SISTER MARGARET L. MOAG
Enlisted in July, 1917, and served in McGill Hospital, Boulogne.

ANNA MAY MACMILLAN
Enlisted May, 1917, went overseas June,
1917, with Winnipeg draft, C.A.M.C.
Served at Can. Gen. Hosp., Shorncliffe.