

be given Government aid to the extent at least of furnishing this material to the actual users at cost, and we do not think it need be very expensive for every man who has land to clear to secure enough of this material to keep quite a large number of stumps burning all the time.

VICTORIA, B.C.;

Printed by WILLIAM H. CULLIN, Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.
1912.