

called Quakers, Mennonists or Tunkers, from the age of sixteen to sixty shall on or before the first day of December in each and every year give his name and place of residence to the Treasurer of the District where he or they shall reside, and pay to such Treasurer to and for public uses of such District in time of peace the sum of twenty shillings, and in time of actual invasion or insurrection, or when any part of the Militia of that District shall be called out on active service the sum of five pounds, and in default of such payment it shall and may be lawful on information or complaint on oath made by the said Treasurer before any Justice of the Peace of such District for the said Justice to issue his warrant under his hand and seal to levy the same by distress and sale of the offender's goods and chattels, returning so much of the said distress as shall exceed the sum of twenty shillings per annum in time of peace and five pounds per annum in time of actual invasion or insurrection or when any part of the Militia of that District shall be called out on active service, deducting therefrom the charges and all other incidental expenses of such distress and sale, as well as the expenses of summoning such offender before such Justice to answer the said information and complaint, and the said sum so levied by the said Justice, as aforesaid, shall be by him within the space of two calendar months paid into the hands of the Colonel, or in his absence the next senior officer of the regiment, battalion or independent company of the division where the offense has been committed, to be applied for the like purposes as the fines, forfeitures and penalties imposed by this Act, and for want of such distress the Justice before whom such person shall have been convicted shall commit him to the common goal of the district until he shall pay and satisfy such sum together with the reasonable charges incident to such conviction; provided, nevertheless, that no person or persons so convicted shall in any case be detained in custody longer than the space of one calendar month; provided also that it is hereby enacted that each and every of the persons usually called Quakers, Menonists and Tunkers that have at-