

1759.
without a strong escort. The sutlers' waggons have gone off to Cumberland without notice. Page 110
November 5, List of Indians who have been here to council. 111
Pittsburgh.
No date. List of Indian nations, their places of abode and chief hunting. It is endorsed "Account of the Western Indians," and gives a sketch of the character of each; the kind of game they usually hunt; number of fighting men, the total of these latter being 23,400, the number of each tribe being given separately. 112 1760.
April 24, Bouquet to Stanwix. Respecting the accident to Frederic Post and Philadelphia. the alterations in Amherst's message to the Indians. 117
June 7, Report brought by an Indian of the movements of French troops and Fort Pitt. their intention to attack Fort Pitt. 119
December 3, Report of a conference held by George Croghan with the Wyandots, Detroit. Ottawas and Pottawatomies. There were present Major Robert Rogers, Capt. Donald Campbell, Governor of Detroit, a number of the officers and other gentlemen, and several of the principal inhabitants, Capt. Henry Montour, interpreter, and several of the deputies from the nations on the Ohio. 124 to 133
- December 23, Permit given by Bouquet to Uriah Hill and Thomas Cohoun to carry Fort Pitt. goods for the Indians to Detroit, with an obligation, signed by Hill, that he will observe the conditions of the permit. 121
- December 24, List of the English prisoners brought by Lieut. Holmes from Detroit, Fort Pitt. giving names, to whom or where they belong, where and when taken and with whom prisoners. 123 1761.
March 1, 2. Conference between Croghan and the Shawanese. 134
April 10, George Croghan to Bouquet. Suspects that Delaware George has Fort Pitt. himself stopped his nation from going to war against the Cherokees. 138
May 26, Speech from Delaware George, asking that houses be built for his Fort Pitt. tribe. 139
May — Speech of Otchinneyawessa, a Six Nation chief, that he had come to make peace with the other nations. 140
- June 3, Description of James McCulloch's children, prisoners among the Fort Pitt. Indians. 141
- June 6, Speech of a chief of the Six Nations, promising to restore the stolen Fort Pitt. horses. 142
- June 17, Capt. Donald Campbell to Major Walters (?). Has received word that Detroit. the Six Nations have sent belts and deputies to all the Indian nations from Nova Scotia to the Illinois to take up the hatchet against the English, and have also sent to all the northern nations; a council was to have been held at Sandusky, which he has prevented by calling a council here and exposing the design, which was to make a simultaneous attack on Niagara and Fort Pitt and cut off all the communications. Urges precautions. Has sent an express to Fort Pitt, but he should also send one in case of accident, &c. 144
- June 28, Copy of Ward's intended speech to the Six Nations, on the occasion of Fort Pitt. a Mingo being killed in stealing horses from the Pennsylvanian troops. 148
- Another speech, dated the 29th. 150
- June — Report (in French) of the conference between the deputies of the Six Detroit. Nations and the Western Indians, at Detroit. 154
- July 3. Report of a council held at the Wyandot town, near Fort Detroit, by the deputies of the Six Nations with the Ottawas, Wyandots, Chippewas and Pottawatomies. 157
- July 9, Speech by the Hard Fellow, a Shawanese chief. 162
Fort Pitt.
- August 1, George Croghan to Bouquet. The Indians have been consoled for the Beaver Town. death of Nickman by a few small presents, and he has ordered rum and