

11. Where there is no contest, the attendance of the Petitioner, or of any Solicitor on his behalf, is not to be required on the examination of the title, except where, for any special reason, the Referee directs such attendance.

12. If, on such examination as aforesaid, the Referee finds the proof of title defective, he is to deliver or mail to the Petitioner, or to his Solicitor or Agent, a memorandum of such finding, stating shortly therein what the defects are.

13. When the Referee finds that a good title is shewn, he is to prepare the necessary advertisement, and the same is to be published in the Official Gazette and in any other newspaper or newspapers in which the Referee thinks it proper to have the same inserted; and a copy of the advertisement is also to be put up on the door of the Court House of the County where the land lies, and in some conspicuous place in the Post Office which is situate nearest to the property the title of which is under investigation; and the Referee is to endorse on the advertisement so prepared by him the name or names of the newspaper or newspapers in which the same is to be published, and the number of insertions to be given therein respectively, and the period (not less than four weeks) for which the notice is to be continued at the Court House and Post Office respectively.

14. Any notice of the application to be
