

Synod of Montreal and Ottawa.

gratuitously. The report was received and the convener thanked for his diligence.

A committee was appointed to draft minutes in connection with the removal by death of the Rev. Dr. Chiniquy and the Rev. D. Muir, two of the members of this court, and the Revs. Dr. Cochran and Dr. King, and to send copies to the families bereaved.

It was agreed to give a hearty vote of thanks to the people of Cornwall for their kind hospitality and to the session and managers of Knox Church, Cornwall, for the entertainment and comfort they extended to the Synod while in session.

The Moderator then announced that the Synod would stand adjourned to meet in Perth on the second Tuesday of May, 1900, afterwards pronouncing the benediction.

The Mayor of Toronto and the Boxer

The regular Toronto correspondent of The Dominion Presbyterian makes the chief magistrate of the capital of Ontario food for mirth. In "Our Toronto Letter" in the number for May 6, he thus speaks of His Worship: "He converts so easily, and in such entirely opposite directions, within incredibly short spaces of time." He tells us also that the same official said to a druggist: "You would be committing a crime if you did not sell soda water on Sunday."

What I have just quoted from The Dominion Presbyterian is in perfect harmony with the following, which I take from another paper: "The Atheneum Club of Toronto, assisted by the Mayor and public, gave John Lewis Scholes, the champion featherweight boxer of Great Britain, an ovation on Friday night on his return home fresh from the scene of his victory. They also gave him a split-second gold hunting-cave watch." "Just fancy!" The chief ruler of the chief city of the Province of Ontario, one of those assembled to welcome home, and make a present expressive of their feelings, to a champion featherweight boxer! His Worship is certainly a great admirer of the so-called "manly art." I wonder if he appeared in official dress. If he did not, he should have, to give more dignity to the occasion. I fear, however, that the honor for his act which he will receive from those whose good opinion is worth having, will, in one sense, be like the boxer, only a "featherweight."
