WHAT OUR SUBSCRIBERS SAY ABOUT THE FARMER'S ADVOCATE AND HOME MAGAZINE :

Two Copies of the Farmer's Advocate and Home Magazine Needed in Some Homes.

16 Warrender Park Crescent, Edinburgh, Scotland, Sept. 29, 1904.
Farmer's Advocate, Winnipeg, Man.
Gentlemen,—I like the Farmer's Advocate and Home Magazine better each day, and consider it to be the very best all-round agricultural and family paper published on either side of the water. It is just what the people need, and should be in every home. I have just one objection to your paper, and that is in regard to the Home Magazine Department. It is too interesting, as I never have any opportunity of reading the paper until after Mrs. Kennedy has thoroughly read every item in that department. Wishing you continued success, I am, Very truly yours,
W. J. KENNEDY,
Professor Animal Husbandry, Iowa Agricultural College

A Boon to Readers.

Dear Sirs,—I must say that I am well pleased with your paper, and would not like to be without it. The weekly publication is quite a boon to readers.
JOHN D. PHILIP, Oak Lake, Man.

Dear Sirs,—I formerly took another Western agricultural journal, and am pleased with the change. No farmer who wishes to work intelligently can afford to be without the "Farmer's Advocate".
J. S. WILSON, Lamoureux, Alta.

Gentlemen,—Inclosed herewith you will find $1.50 in payment of my subscription for the year ending Sept. 1st, 1904. I believe that you publish one of the best if not the best farm paper in America.
A. R. DAVIDSON, Little Falls, Minn.
