Female Medicines. Da. S. P. Townson's Sarsoparilla is a sovereign and speedy cure for Incipsent Consumption, Barrenness, Preispass Uteri, on Falling of the Womb, Contiveness, Files, Loucorrhom, or Whites, obstructed or difficult Menstruction. Incontinence of Urine, or involuntary discharge thereof, and for the general prestration of the system—no matter whether the result of inherent obtate of causes, produced by irregularity, illness or accident. Nothing one be more éurprising than its invaporating effects on the human frame. Persons all weakness and lessitude, from taking it, at once become robust and full of energy under its influence. It immediately counteracts the nervelessness of the female frame, which the great cause of Barrenness. It will not be expected of us, in distely counteracts the nervelocation of the lemmis frame, whose is the great cause of Barrenness. It will not be expected of us, in case of so delicate a nature, to exhibit certificates of sures performed, but we can assure the afficied, that hundreds of cases have been reported to us. Thousands of cases where families have been without children, after using a few bottles of this invaluable Medicane, have been blessed with fine, healthy offspring-

It is the sefert and most effectual medicine for purifying the eyetem, and relieving the sufferings attendant upon childbirth everliscovered. It strengthess both the mother and the child, prevents pain and disease, increases and enriches the fond; those who have used it, think it is indispensable. It is highly useful both before and atter commement, as it prevents diseases strendant upon childbirth—in Costiveness, files, (ramps, Swelling of the Foot, Despondency, Heartburn, Vemiting, rain in the Buck and Loins, False Fains, Hemorrhage, and in regulating the secretions and equalizing the circulation, it has no equal. The great beauty of this medicine is, it is always usfe, and the most delicate use it most successfully, very lew cases require any other medicine, in some a little Castor Oil, or Magassan is useful. Exercise in the open sir, and light food with this medicine, will always
