
British Columbia Monthly

(Continuing "Westminster Review," Vancouver)

VOLUME XIV

VANCOUVER, B. C., FEBRUARY, 1919

No. 5

THE SOCIAL, EDUCATIONAL, LITERARY AND RELIGIOUS MAGAZINE OF THE CANADIAN WEST

Promoting Social Betterment, Educational Progress and Religious Life. Independent in Politics.

CONTENTS

NOTES OF THE MONTH

EDITORIAL:

Too Many Meetings—The Blessings of the Ban
"Social Welfare" and Social Service
What's Wrong With Vancouver Social Service Council?
Salvation Army War Funds Campaign

THE DOMINANT NOTE IN THE NEW ERA
Opinions of Representative Western Canadians
(Second Selection)

REV. R. G. MacBETH'S NOTES AND COMMENTS:
Laurier: The Grain Growers: Peter Wright: General Pau

CINDERELLA

By E. Almond Withrow

MESSAGES FROM BRITISH COLUMBIA SOLDIERS
An Allegation Concerning Demobilization
A Theolog's Plaint

THE ARRIVAL OF THE BRITISH SOLDIERS
As Told by a Belgian Scholar

A SOLDIER'S PIPE DREAM

A FAMILY AFFAIR: OUR SHORT STORY (From Life)

THE BOOK WORLD

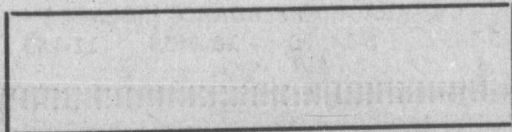

"Three Times and Out"

ABRACADABRA

The Wayside Philosopher

SUBSCRIBERS AND FRIENDS:

The circulation extension campaign mentioned the other month (and now under way) involves the introduction of a new system of checking and recording. Will you please facilitate the work, and save repeated printing of names, etc., by checking your renewal date and remitting dues on receipt of this issue? The subscription rate is $1.50 for one year and $2.50 for two years.

PUBLISHING OFFICE: 1317 HARO STREET, VANCOUVER, B. C.