

LIVE STOCK MARKETS. TORONTO.

Receipts of live stock at the City Market were 75 carloads, composed of 1230 cattle, 1342 hogs, 1225 sheep and lambs and 433 calves.

The quality of fat cattle was medium, not many good or choice loads being on sale.

Trade was not brisk by any means for cattle, and prices were easier, both for butchers and exporters.

The World prophesied that cattle prices would decline, and they have, and they will go still lower in the near future.

Exporters—Few export cattle were offered, and prices were much the same on Monday at the Junction. The best price reported was for the best lot of nine steers, 1280 lbs., of the market, sold by Maybee, Wilson & Hall at $5.50, and another lot, 1200 lbs., at $4.90 per cwt. Export bulls are cheaper, selling at from $3.75 to $4.75 per cwt.

Butchers—George Rowntree, who bought upwards of 200 cattle for the Harris Abattoir Company, reported the following prices: One very choice load of butchers, 1050 lbs. each, at $5.25, which was the highest price quoted; loads of good, $4.60 to $5; medium $4.10 to $4.40; good cows, $4 to $4.50, good enough to export; medium and common cows, $1.50 to $3.50.

Feeders and Stockers.—Wm. Murby reported nothing doing in either class, but expects some on Wednesday and Thursday.

Milkers and Springers.—A moderate supply of milkers and springers sold at $30 to $60 each, and one extra quality cow brought $65.

Veal Calves.—Veal calves sold at from $3 to $5.75 per cwt., with a few selected calves at $6 per cwt.

Sheep and Lambs—Export ewes sold at $3.50 to $3.80; rams at $3 to $3.25; yearling sheep sold at $4 to $4.25; lambs at $7.25 to $8 per cwt.

Hogs—Mr. Harris quotes selects at $6.90, and lights at $6.65 per cwt.

THE SUMMER VISITOR.

Now is the time of the Summer Visitor, and the Summer Visitor is always either good, bad or indifferent. There are three distinct kinds, and few householders but have sampled them all—that is, if they have been keeping house for any length of time.

We long ago ceased to have winter guests. The man or woman who goes forth visiting his distant friends in the middle of the winter has been practically exterminated. This has been accomplished in two ways. He has been killed off by long-distance telephone or else the spare bed has killed him off if he was permitted to arrive. Next to a tomb, the spare bedroom in January is a deadly place, and all the time you are on your visit the mistress from a fear that you will take sick and die on the premises.

But the nice summer visitor is a thing of beauty and a joy forever. It is a privilege as well as a pleasure to wait on her. To keep the vase on her dressing table full of fresh and fragrant flowers; to go up and down the rows picking the biggest and ripest berries for her and to turn the separator so that she may have fresh cream on them. It is a joy to take her out for a drive or a row on the river, or on the mill dam; to swing her in the hammock, to sit at her feet in the grass. Yes, the summer visitor—he or she—is either good, bad or indifferent. I pray that it is your luck to have nice ones; and as for yourself, if you haven't got good clothes and good manners, and at least a few good looks, don't go away off somewhere and be a summer guest and make your hosts unhappy. 'Tain't fair. It is not right no matter how you figure on it. If you really hanker to be a summer guest, go somewhere where no one knows you, but don't inflict yourself on your friends. You will be a discordant note, and if you find out that you are a white elephant you will be so very miserable and unhappy that you will wish that you had never come.

The Spulpins have had two summer guests already. One I never set eyes on. They kept her boxed up, poor thing, and they surreptitiously removed her to the station after dark, or very early in the morning before anybody was up.

The other guest, they peddled her around all the time, they made parties for her, and they showed her off.

All the guests at that favored wedding feast had to have a wedding garment.

The summer guest must wear a garment, and good looks and youth, and money and position go to make it up.

And, heigho! some of us haven't any of them—figuratively speaking, we are in rags. Very well, then; we can stay at home.—The Khan.

WHAT THE KIDNEYS DO.

WHAT BOOTH'S PILLS ARE DOING FOR MILDMAY PEOPLE.

All the blood in the body passes thro the Kidneys every three minutes.

The Kidneys filter the blood. They work night and day to daily remove about 500 grains of impure matter.

If they fail, some part of this impure matter is left in the blood, bringing on pain in the back, headache, dizziness, irregular heart, hot, dry skin, rheumatism, gravel, dropsy, deposits in the urine. Booth's Kidney Pills make the filtering right and overcome Kidney trouble. Hundreds of Bruce County residents have found this out.

Jno. E. Pink, of Mildmay, says:—"I know Booth's Kidney Pills. Procured at the J. Coates drug store to be fine. Suffering from an irritating kidney irregularity, hard pains through my loins, sides and region of the kidneys. I was about unable to work or attend to business. I was advised to try Booth's Kidney Pills and did so, and under this treatment I was cured. I am pleased to give Booth's Kidney Pills my endorsement and would not ask for a remedy to act any better or quicker than they did in my case."

Sold by Dealers, Price 50c. The R. T. Booth Co., Ltd., Fort Erie, Ont., Sole Canadian Agents.

NOT MUCH OF A DOG.

A man in Manitoba recently sued a railway company for damages for the death of a hound killed on the track. The company defended itself upon the following points:—

Said dog was chasing a rabbit up defendant's track in violation of game laws. Said rabbit lived on defendant's right of way, and was therefore the property of the defendant.

Plaintiff's dog was a trespasser, and was hunting defendant's property without permission.

Said deceased was not much of a dog, anyhow, or it could easily have kept out of the way of defendant's trains.

And having fully answered, defendant prays to be discharged.

THREATENED WITH PARALYSIS.

Peter E. Summers, of Kalamazoo, Mich., relates his experience:

BEFORE TREATMENT

at Mt. Clemens I was induced to consult Dr. Kennedy & Kennedy, though I had lost all faith in doctors. Like a drowning man I commenced the New Method Treatment and it saved my life. The improvement was like magic—I could feel the vigor going through the nerves. I was cured mentally and physically. I have sent them many patients and will continue to do so.

AFTER TREATMENT

Dr. Kennedy & Kennedy, of Kalamazoo, Mich., relate his experience: "I was troubled with Nervous Debility for many years. I lay it to indigestion and excesses in early youth. I became very despondent and didn't care whether I worked or not. I imagined everybody who looked at me gazed my secret. Imaginative dreams at night weakened me—my back ached, had pains in the back of my head, hands and feet were cold, tired in the morning, poor appetite, fingers were shaky, eyes blurred, hair loose, memory poor, etc. Numbness in the fingers set in and the doctor told me he feared paralysis. I took all kinds of medicines and tried many first-class physicians, wore an electric belt for three months, went to Mt. Clemens for baths, but received little benefit. While at Mt.
