YOUNG LADY FROM NEWFOUNDLAND WITH THE RED CROSS IN FRANCE TELLS OF HER EXPERIENCES

My Dear Mother and Father,— It really does seem ages since I wrote to you and I am sure I have received several letters from you that are still unanswered. One came last night after I had gone to bed, so I made up my mind there and then to write you today; so here I am scribbling this in front of the worst fire you ever saw, a gasoline, at home we would not dare to call it a fire. Anyway it does afford one a certain amount of comfort, even if one has to keep the window and doors shut. The French people insist on it for hours at a time.)

I am sending you a paper—"Daily Express"—in which you will see a piece about our Hospital. It is on page 4 and is called "Hell's Ante-Room." I have marked it red. It is quite interesting and I am sure you would like to read it.

After that battle which I mention, we had a very busy time and really saw much of the suffering that such a battle causes. It is too terrible for words. We went about our work with lumps in our throats as we helped to dress the wounds received in that battle.

I remember dressing one man in the Receiving Room who had received a very large wound (not serious) who gaily went on eating a huge chunk of bread and butter all the while he was being dressed. He told me it was the first bit he had had to eat for two whole days and really it did one's heart's good to see the poor man with dirty face and hands and mud covered clothes from the trenches enjoying his bite. He was sent off to England that night and he was delighted at the thought of seeing his wife and two children whom he had not seen since August. I hope he arrived safely and that he will soon be better again.

Yes, all shipping was stopped for some days, but I think they have started again now, so I expect there won't be any more delays with the mail. All leave was stopped too for some time but it has started again now.

Miss Deakin went home for seven days' leave on Saturday, she came from No. 1 Clearing Hospital, and was able to come in and see me on her way to the boat.
She returned Easter Sunday, so I hope to see her again. I always send you her letters, so I am enclosing one new.

No, we are not allowed on the field to pick up the wounded. I wish we were. I should like it. I hear that no Nursing Sister is allowed within five miles of the firing line. We are a long distance from it at present, I don't know how far but I should think over forty miles. I shall be glad to go nearer if I am wanted.

You say you can't understand what Q.A.I.M.N.S.R. mean. I will tell you, "Queen Alexandra's Imperial Military Nursing Service Reserve. Now of course it will seem less complicated.

I sent you a cheque some weeks ago. Have you got it yet?

Now I really must go and get ready for duty, I have been off this morning. With very best love to Aunt Betty and all at home. —MONA.

DRILL IS HARD BUT BENEFICIENT

Dear Sister,—It is only now I have had time to write you since we came to Devenport Barracks.
We were landed in Liverpool and came here by train: you talk of sights; Well, we saw some. Liverpool is a grand town, one would see more with one look here than you would see in a lifetime in Newfoundland. Some day I will describe it all to you.

Our drill is pretty hard here but we are getting used to it, we got to keep right up to No. 1. It is glorious here, imagine there are eight thousand men in the Barracks, and when the bugle calls us down to parade it is something to look at. It is going to make men of us. We would not exchange places with some of the fellows at home for anything.

We are expecting to be on board of a ship and we do hope we will be sent on one of the large battleships, and see some active service. You can depend on us (four Branch boys) to do our little best to keep the "Union Jack" flying at the mast head.

When you write please give me little information about the other three Branch boys (Fred and Albert Power and Alphonse Cor-corhan). We heard in St. John's that Fred was in an engagement in the North Sea and got wounded and was in a London Hospital.
Tell me all the news.

How are mother and father?
Tell mother not to worry. How are all the boys and girls? Give my love to K. and M. Tell them all we will have all the Germans "done up" before this time next year, and we will be going home better and braver men than when we left there.

Tell Mrs. Power not to worry, the day will soon come when she will again welcome home her "two brave soldiers" from the war, and I trust we (four) will return also.

The bugle is sounding now (a call we must obey), so I am compelled to draw my letter to a close.
Wishing you a fond good-bye.

Your affectionate brother,
—CHARLIE ROCHE,
(of Branch.)

EXPECTS TO GO TO EGYPT

Dear Friend,—I am writing you these few lines, hoping to find you in good health. I received your kind and welcome letter and was glad to hear from you.

We have had four different quarters since coming across here and it is rumored that we will be leaving Edinburgh for Egypt the 17th of this month.

There are quite a lot of new Commissions in our regiment.
John Fox, Gerald Harvey, Laurie
Bane and H. Herder, Sub-Lieutenants.

There was another of our fellows died with measles since last writing.

It is reported that the two last contingents—C and D. Co.—are going to FORTH GEORGE to do their training.

We have quite a few painters here—L. Day, John Clare, John Edwards and Stone.

We had two Naval Reservists here last week. They came from Aberdeen. The cruisers on which they are drafted put in there and they were granted three days' leave.
I was South on the "Charybdis" with both of them.

Edinburgh is a great place for boose. Tell Charlie it is rather a sport place. All the boys are well but the don't like the Sergeant Major. His name is Paven. He was into R. G. Reid's as butler.
They claim that he is above his business. To my mind he is master and owner. You know he has a great pull with the Colonel. All the Englishmen and Scotchmen are striped now, but you know we have a Newfoundland Governor?

We have many who are more capable of stripes than those who have got them. The cant is here, "Who is who in England?"
