THE CLOSURE

Premier Borden has taken the possible course in the matter of introducing closure. For weeks the unseemly spectacle has been presented at Ottawa of a set of wind-jammers who have talked and talked and even introduced irrelevant matter to the extent of Mr. Emmerson actually having a nerve to read a portion of the United States declaration of independence with the comment that some something would result in this Dominion. Once more Borden has proved his self to be complete master of the situation. In a courteous yet firm manner after allowing the Opposition an extreme latitude, he has decided the business of the country must go on, and that he will not stand for more nonsense. Good for him. Now the threat is made that Liberal majority in the Senate will throw out the Navy Bill when reaches that chamber. If so, Borden should, and will take steps to place that body of irresponsibles on an elective basis. Don't make any mistake about that.

THE SHRIEKS OF THE BEST

Liberal papers to-day are one voice of scream of anger and petulance. Here is a sample from the Toronto Globe: "There is no longer a pretence fair play in the Parliament of Canada. That the revered Chief of Liberal party, a statesman of world wide reputation, whose parliamentary methods have always been most courteous and considered should be howled down in the Commons by a mob of opponents of the Speaker had signified that had the floor is a black ugly spot upon every man who took part in the infamous affair, from Premier Borden down. But one word of comment was spoken by Sir Wilfrid when by formal resolution of the majority of Speaker's ruling was set aside at Mr. Hazen was given the floor. "Shame!" he said. That word will be re-echoed wherever men meet to discuss the revolutionary proceedings of the government. What absolute rot. The "shame" of the whole business has been for Sir Wilfrid Laurier, though in the minority, attempted to boss the House. With unparalleled meanness and his followers have endeavored to dictate to the majority-the most reasonable and the most unBritish effort ever made by any man supposed to be possessed with the responsibility of leadership. Laurier, who even yet does not seem to realize that he is not the Premier, needed a good lesson and he got it. It is to be hoped that the doer will do him good, although that is very doubtful for he is still full of impotent wrath because of the reverse he received in September, 1911.

THE REASON

There is a curious anomaly in the proposals that if crystallized into legislation will bring a broad smile to the faces of Canadian meat-packers. Their products are let in duty free to secure competition against the Meat Trust, while the Canadian farmers' cattle, from which the packers make their meat, are still dutiable. The meat packing interests of Canada were powerful foes of the agreement of 1911 for better trade relations with the United States. It seems like a case of loving one's enemies to have the United States Congress single them out for preferential favors as against the Canadian farmer.- Toronto Globe editorial.
