Nuptial Notes

SECOND—HUTTON. A very pretty wedding was solemnized on Wednesday morning at eight o'clock in St. Basil's Church by Rev. Dean Brady, when Miss Ella Hutton and Mr. Elmer Sides were united in marriage. The bridesmaid was Miss G. Hutton, while her brother, Mr. Austin Hutton acted as best man. A wedding breakfast was held at the home of the bride's mother, 36 Spring Street, after which the happy couple left for Toronto and other points. The bride wore a beautiful navy blue suit trimmed with sable and a large black hat with plumes. On their return, they will take up their residence at Mt. Zion.

Mrs. William G. McDoo's chauffeur was fined $25 for speeding while she was in the machine.

Do You Get Pure, Clean Milk?

You get nothing else from us. Pasteurization makes it as clean and pure as deep spring water. Did you ever stop to think about the old cans and half-washed bottles in which milk is often delivered? Not here, though, because every bottle leaving our building is sterilized.

Obituary

MRS. A. A. MATTHEWS.

It is with much regret that The Courier is called upon to record the untimely death of Harriet Abel, wife of Mr. A. A. Matthews, 15 Terrace Hill street. The deceased lady has been suffering from a serious nervous breakdown for some months and while moving around the house fell into a cistern. Mrs. Matthews was an estimable lady and had a wide circle of friends who respected her for her sterling character and goodness of heart. In addition to the heart-breaking husband, two children, Charlotte and Edward, are left to mourn the great loss of a loving wife and mother. The funeral, which will be private, takes place on Monday afternoon at Mt. Hope cemetery.

Duffs Won in Last Inning

Yesterday afternoon a picked team from the 25th Dragoons and the Battery played the 38th Dufferin Rifles a game of indoor baseball at the Y. M. C. A. The combination had it on the Duffs until the last inning when they blew and the 38th put over 7 runs and won out, 9 to 6. It was, nevertheless, a splendid game. The Duffs—Mulligan c; Stewarts p; Slemis 1st, Williams 2nd, Solatesstrum ss, Murray 3rd, Henderson lf, Cocok cf, Rowley rf. Battery and Dragoons—Fields, c; Cannel p; Prime 1st, Mitchell 2nd, Crouch ss, Lucas 3rd, Roland lf, Kelly cf, Clark rf. Umpire—Snow.

Recital at Conservatory Fine Treat

Mrs. Mason Delighted Audience With Selections From Noted Novel, "Ben Hur."

A literary recital, "The Coming of the King," being an adaptation of Lew Wallace's "Ben Hur," was given at the Conservatory of Music last night by Mrs. Walter Mason, assisted by Miss Gladys Garvin, vocalist, and Miss Minnie I. Oles, pianist. A large sized audience was present, the assembly hall being filled, and Mrs. Mason showed herself to be a capable and well trained artist. Her impersonation of the different characters in the story was extremely vivid, but she was always restrained, never over doing the part. Her manner of reciting threw a dignity over the noble passages selected from this great story, and the audience showed their appreciation by generous applause.

Miss Gladys Garvin rendered three vocal solos, "Come Unto Him" (Handel), "When I Survey the Wondrous Cross" (Farmer) and "My Redeemer and My God" (Buck). Miss Oles also gave a splendid piano selection, "Murmuring Breezes" by Jean Memann. The proceeds of the evening are to be devoted to the Leper Mission.

Music and Drama

AT THE BRANT

Every number is a feature at the Brant for the rest of the week. The White Feather, the stirring war drama, is shown, and is remarkably interesting, while another episode of "The Goddess" is also depicted. The vaudeville is very good. The four Shannons give fine musical amusement, and Harry Milton delighted the audience with his educated dogs. The Florentian trio were recalled time and time again for their accordion playing. Altogether the whole performance was run off with a snap and vim which made a great hit with the capacity house.

The Apollo management announces some special feature shows coming, which should please patrons of that popular amusement house. Monday and Tuesday the special feature will be "Capt. Macklin." This photo play is a production by D. W. Griffiths, who produced "The Birth of a Nation" and is recommended highly. Wednesday and Thursday the Apollo will show a continuation of the serial "A Diamond from the Sky." This story is attracting crowds at every performance. On Friday and Saturday a feature of special interest to Brantfordites will be shown. This is a picture of the big trek, and shows the 37th Battalion, with many Brantford boys on the march from Niagara on the Lake to Toronto.
