Belgians Looking Ahead.

Brussels, Jan. 6-It is characteristic that Belgium, even in this, her period of unhappiness and distress should look ahead into the brighter season to follow the war. Belgium is an indus-trial nation, and before the war one of trial nation, and before the war one of the wealthiest, per capita, in the world, and already the people are looking forward to the real rehabilitation of the country. Already tentative plans are being formulated for the replans are being formulated for the re-construction of railroads, the rebuild-

Opening of House Next Week Will See Extension Asked For.

Ottawa, Jan. 6.—A resolution for an address to his Majesty, extending the life of the twelfth Parliament of Canada for one year, will be sub-mitted to the House of Commons by the Government next week, immediately upon the opening of the session.
Notice of the resolution will probably be given on Thursday, the formal opening day. The resolution will thus have the right of way over prac-tically all other legislation and will be taken up immediately on the adop-tion of the address in reply to the speech from the throne. The atti-tude of the Opposition, which will govern the character and length of the session will thus be determ at an early date. As stated already it is not expected that serious oppobe offered. desire to express their gratitude to their many friends and the public generally for continued patronage to the old agency, and at the same time to assure them that we now are fully equipped for a larger business even than in the past. We have a very large list of larger business even than in the past. We have a very large list of farm and city properties for sale and are fully connected with a number of leading exchange agencies in the different provinces of the Dominion and throughout the United States and in the important centres of the old countries, so that larger farms have a very wide advertisement through our agency and properties entered with us for sale have greater opportunities of being disposed of them they could have in purely local agencies.

of than they could have in purely local agencies.

Further—So far as our local business is concerned, we have engaged Mr. Samuel Porter, formerly with P. A. Shultis & Co. of this city, who will have charge of the farm department to a large extent, and buyers therefore will be driven out either in automobile or other conveyance on a moment's notice.
