

Vol. 5—No. 156

DAWSON, Y. T., SATURDAY, JUNE 28, 1902.

PRICE 25 CENTS

SEATTLE GAMBLING

Has Been Closed by Chief Sullivan

Who Says it is According to Wish of the City's Business Element.

Special to the Daily Nugget. Seattle, June 27.—The chief of police has ordered every gambling house in the city closed.

Friendly Feeling

Special to the Daily Nugget. London, June 27.—The presence of the Princess of Wales and Mrs. Reid at the audience of Ambassador Reid with the Prince of Wales this morning was simply a continuation of the friendly feeling between the British Royal family and government.

London Deserted.

Special to the Daily Nugget. London, June 27.—What was to have gone down in history as procession day finds the city of London as deserted as the Empire's capital can ever be.

Clothing cleaned, pressed, repaired made to fit.—R. I. GOLDBERG, 177th St.

The Ladue Quartz Mill

IS NOW IN OPERATION

We have made a large number of tests and are ready to make others.

We have the best plant money will buy and guarantee all our work in this mill and also in the

Assay Office

Shoff's Worm Cure FOR DOGS

...It Never Fails...

PIONEER DRUG STORE

Buckboards, Buggies, Bain Wagons.

McLennan, McFeely & Co., Ltd.

A RAINY DAY IN DAWSON.

Graduated Income Tax

London, June 11.—In the course of the debate on the finance bill in the house of commons today the Chancellor of the Exchequer, Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, said he was not opposed to the principle of a graduated income tax.

Ice cream and cake served at Gandolfo's. 17th

WAS NOT HYPNOTIZED.

That's what lots of people said about the man in the show window. Maybe not, but we do know that if you want to buy drugs, toilet articles, etc., at virtually outside prices (freight added) you will have to go to Cribbs, the druggist.

CRIBBS, The Druggist

SUCCESSOR TO CRIBBS & ROGERS, King St. Next to Post Office.

Mrs. Dr. Slayton PALMIST AND PHRENOLOGIST Has returned and opened parlors on King Street, opp. Marlborough Annex. Hours 10 to 10.

COLONIAL PREMIERS

Will Hold Conference Next Week

Gathering is Considered of too Much Importance to Longer Postpone.

London, June 27.—Colonial premiers, while sorely disappointed over the postponement of the coronation, are consulting among themselves and receiving cues from Chamberlain concerning the colonial conference which takes place next week.

Made Commander

London, June 28.—Commenting upon Hon. Michael Henry Herbert, British ambassador to the United States, being made Knight Commander of St. Michael and St. George, the St. James Gazette says: "Peerage is sure to follow knighthood if all goes well at the embassy at Washington."

Minister Dead.

London, June 28.—Rt. Rev. William Gardin Cowie, D.D., bishop of Auckland and prelate of New Zealand is dead.

...MOVED...

The Dawson Dental Parlors have removed to their new location in the Portland Bldg, cor. 2nd Avenue and Third St. Call and get our prices.

BULLETIN.

London, June 28.—A bulletin issued at Buckingham palace this morning says the King had a good night and his improved condition is maintained. The doctors are happy to be able to state that they consider his majesty now out of immediate danger.

Willie Drops Out

Paris, June 27.—Contestants in the Paris-Vienna automobile race reached Bregenz, Austria, this morning. W. K. Vanderbilt has retired from the contest.

Crazy Father

Boston, June 28.—At Marlborough, Mass., yesterday morning Daniel Culin endeavored to cremate his seven-year-old son. He says the demon told him so.

Odds in His Favor

Chicago, June 28.—Dr. Murphy of Chicago, dean of Rush Medical College, estimates King Edward's chances for recovery at 97 per cent.

Report Adopted

Washington, June 28.—The conference report on the Isthmian canal bill was adopted by the house 257 to 7.

On a Visit

Washington, June 28.—Jules Cambon, the French ambassador, sailed for France yesterday to return in four months.

CUSHMAN AND KNOX

Working Hard for Alaska in Congress

With Little Show That Any Thing Will be Done at This Session.

Special to the Daily Nugget. Washington, June 27.—Representatives Cushman and Knox, members of the committee on territories, are trying to obtain consent of the speaker to hold a night session to consider the Alaska delegate bill.

Dead Horses

Washington, June 28.—The senate yesterday agreed to appropriations of $500,000 for the Pan-American Exposition and $100,000 for the Charleston, S.C., exposition on the general deficiency appropriation bill.

Still at Large

Vancouver, Wash., June 27.—There are no new developments in the chase after convicts Tracy and Merrill. There is absolutely no trace of the outlaws since Sunday morning when they are known to have made a raid on the house of Pat McGuire.

Strike is Serious

Omaha, June 27.—The strike situation on the Union Pacific grows more critical every day. Chief of Police Donoghue called President Kennedy of the Boiler Makers' union in his office and warned him no violence will be tolerated.

Churches Closed

Paris, June 27.—At a cabinet meeting this morning President Loubet signed a decree closing French religious institutions which have not complied with provisions of the law of such associations. One hundred and thirty establishments are involved.

Advertisement for SARGENT & PINSKA, featuring hats and shoes. Text includes: 'Dress for Hot Weather', 'Hats', 'Examine our SHOES—New consignment of Banister, Keith and Slaters just received.—All Leaders', 'SARGENT & PINSKA', 'Second Avenue'.