THE ATHENS COUNCIL

Just how Athens' municipal council is to be constituted and of whom composed is still a problem that engages the earnest attention of the rate-practice of the two political parties to arrange this matter before nomination day, so that an election was almost invariably avoided. After their elec-tion, all thought of politics disappeared from the minds of the reeve and councillors, and we heard no more about political lines until the approach of next election. But it was re-peatedly urged that municipal affairs and politics should be absolutely d, and for the last three years there has been no public recognition of their union—albeit, there were some on both sides of the political ence who allowed their thoughts to wander out along the old familiar lines when helping to determine the person

It was under the new order of p ocedure that the election took place on the 2nd inst., and our readers are already familiar with wast happened mmediately after.

Last week, with the reeves ip vacant and the date set for nomination and election, the Liberals were called to meet in caucus on Friday evening for the selection of a candidate for reeve, election of officers, etc. There was a good representation of ratepayers and attentive interest was manifested in the proceedings, Mr. I. C. Alguire was elected to preside and Mr. B. Loverin was appointed secrerary. The chairman read the notice convening the meeting and stating its object, and then invited nominations the office of reeve. The names of Messrs. H. R. Knowlton, C. H. Smith and M. B. Holmes were then brought before the meeting. Mr. Knowlton at nce resigned.

Mr. Holmes said he had yielded to the wishes of friends in consenting to allow himself to be placed in nomina tion. He had personally no a pira-tions and would cheerfully accept the finding of the jury. Mr. Smith also spoke briefly along the same lines. A ballot was then taken and Mr Smith was announced to have secured the majority of lallots. Prompt action not being taken to make the vote unanimous, Mr. Smith tendered his resignation in a neat speech in which he expressed his appreciation of the honor that had been conferred upon him in repeatedly electing him to the office of councillor and for the further honor of a plurality of votes for the reeveship in a caucus of the Liberal

This left Mr. Holmes' name alone before the caucus, and a vote to make his selection unanimous was brought before the meeting but was side-tracked by a rather irregular discuss ion of other matters.

The executive committee of the local Liberal Association was re-elected.

During the progress of the meeting a messenger informed the village clerk and by him it was announced that Mr. Robert Erwin, acting on legal advice, would resign his office as councillor.

Mr. Knowlton has rendered dished service to the village in taking hold of the town hall project at a time when mists of uncertainty obscured the future and placing it, with the assistance of the council, in a clear light, and carrying on the work in an economical, progressive spirit. As his chief condjutor, Mr. Smith has also earned the gratitude of the rate-payers of Athens. He has taken an active, enthusiastic interest in every department of municipal work and th highly satisfactory results achieved last year are in large measure due to his faithful, efficient work. Mr. Holmes is not a new man in the municipal field. He has before served the village most acceptably as council lor, and there is no aeason to doubt that the affairs of the village would be otherwise than safe under his superin-

In fact, with three such men available, no mistake could be made in selecting a candidate for reeve, and the fact that the element of finality did not characterize the deliberations of the Liberals on Friday evening is in no part due to lack of fitness of their

But there may be other good and true men anxious or willing to serve the village as reeve; the nomination alone will reveal just what is in store

Lyndhurst Fiar Officers

The annual meeting of Rear Leeds Lansdowne Agricultural Society, Lyndhurst, was held on Wed., 11th inst. The following board was elected for 1905 :-

President-R. J. Wood, Lyndhurst, lst Vice-Pres.—Herb McArdle, 2nd Vice Pres .- Jas. Young, Lynd-

Sec'y-Ziba Jackson, Lyndhurst. Tress—C. B. Tallman, Lyndhurst. Auditors—C. Johnston, Lyndhurst, and Homer Singleton.

F. Booth. Morton. Jacob Dillon, Ellisville, Bismarck Green, Oak Leaf. F. Bresee, Lyndhurt. Will Johnson, Lyndhurst, E. L. Kendrick, Lyndhurst. Jonn Chapman, Sweet's Corners, John Niblock, Sweet's Corners, Total receipts for year, $812.00 Balance on hand, $47.46.

Lyndhurst is doing a good work in oringing together for show purposes the very best that the farms and firethe very sides of the district can produce, and the educational value of such a display can hardly be over-estimated. The bitterly cold weather that prevailed during the last fair must have seriously affected the receipts, and the fact that notwithstanding this they were able to pay all prizes in full and still show a surplus is hignly creditable to the management and to the members. There is good ground for the hope expressed by the secretary that the fair of 1905 will be larger and better than ever.
