The corner stone of the new Baptist church was 'well and truly laid' yesterday with appropriate ceremony. A thoughtful and appropriate address was given by Rev. S. B. Kemppton, D. D.

FOR SALE—Thoroughbred Plymouth Rock cock. Price $1.25. Apply to THE ACADIAN.

Horton Collegiate Academy re-opens on Wednesday of next week. Mr. Joseph Howe, the former popular house-master, has been engaged for the month of September to perform the duties of that position. During the vacation the large class-room has been fitted with up to date adjustable desks, which is a great improvement.

PLAY TO RENT—Over drug store and post office. Modern conveniences. A. V. BORDEN.

Rev. Byron C. Borden, D. D., the new president of Mt. Allison University, preached in the Methodist church last Sunday evening on the text 'Ye shall know the truth, etc.' His address, beside giving interesting facts about Mt. Allison, was an impressive presentation of the vitality of truth, and of the need of it for the good of the nation.

FOR SALE—Two houses situated on Gasperau avenue. Apply to Miss G. E. Robinson.

Attention is called to the announcement of the opening of Acadia Seminary. It is gratifying to learn that the principal expects a large attendance of boarders, and that the percentage of the pupils returning for the second year's work is the largest in recent years. This speaks volumes for the confidence reposed in the Seminary authorities.

Geo. A. Johnson, Barber, Agent for Teas, Awning, Canoes, Canvas Hammocks, etc.

A number of Wolfville people went to Kentville on Tuesday evening to hear Sir Wilfrid Laurier. There was a great crowd present to hear the premier and the other speakers who accompanied him. Addresses were given by Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Hon. W. B. Fielding and Hon. J. E. Macell. These present report a remarkable lack of enthusiasm.

Wool.—We take good washed wool in any quantity in exchange. J. D. CHAMBERS.

This week there was exhibited in the window of Mr. Herbin's store a copy of the seal of Acadia University cast in bronze by the Tiffany Studios, New York. This is to be placed on a block of stone quarried at Wolfville and built into the Memorial Tower in Halifax. Danvers & Cobb, the architects of the Tower, are also the designers of this bronze. It is a beautiful design and well executed.

COAL—Now landing; Cargo Hard Coal; Nut size. All orders will receive prompt attention. ILLSLEY & HARVEY CO., LTD.

Miss Rose N. Hartley, B. A., has been appointed to the position of Vice-Principal in Acadia Seminary. Miss Hartley is a graduate of Bushnell University, and was Preceptress at Feddie Institute, New Jersey, one of the best schools in the state, for six years. Miss Hartley comes with a large knowledge of the educational problem as presented in schools for girls and young women and is most strongly recommended. Further and more extended notice will appear later.

HARD COAL—Schr. W. H. Baxter now discharging clean, bright hard coal in all sizes. Place your order now and be more than satisfied. BURGESS & CO., AGENTS.

It was but a small audience that greeted Mr. Francis Labadie and Miss Lillian Jurgen at the opera house on Wednesday evening. The entertainment given deserved a much larger patronage, and we were sorry not to see a very much larger number present. The program was a varied one and included nearly every phase of dramatic rendition. Selections were given from Shakespeare and many other writers, including Dr. Drummond. The entertainment was a literary treat.

Funeral of C. E. Starr.

The remains of the late Charles E. Starr, who died in Washington on Aug. 15th, were brought home for interment and reached Wolfville on Tuesday morning, accompanied by Mrs. Starr and Mr. Frank Starr.

The funeral took place on Wednesday afternoon from the Methodist church, where the casket was at once taken on arrival. The service was conducted by Rev. J. W. Prastwood, pastor of church, and Rev. Dr. Chute, Dean of Theology at Acadia University.

Mr. Starr was a member of St. George's Lodge, A. P. & A. M., attended in the regalia of the order and conducted the Masonic burial service at the grave, Mr. J. D. Chambers officiating, with the chaplain, Rev. I. W. Porter. The floral tributes were beautiful and included a handsome wreath from wife and sons; spray, from mother and brother; asters, from sisters; Masonic emblem, from Cousins Lodge, Malden, Mass., of which Mr. Starr was a member; massive anchor from Halifax friends; magnificent wreath from former business associates—McLellan & Brigham Co., Boston, Mass. This latter was unable to be brought to Wolfville and was left at Boston. The interment was at Willow Bank, and the remains were allowed to their last resting place by a large number of friends of the town and also of Canning and Pegan.

THE ACADIAN has been able to secure the following additional details concerning the death of Mr. Starr. On the morning of his demise he was on his way to inspect some mining properties in company with his partner and three other men. They were in the mountains at a very great alti-

The Colonial Stock Company.

Manager W. M. Black, of the Opera House, Wolfville, received a letter this a. m. stating that The Colonial Stock Company have been rehearsing at Charlottetown, P. E. I., for the past two weeks on the new plays that they will use this coming season.

The organization will carry an entirely new lot of scenery which has been built especially for their plays, and is considered by those who have seen it the most elaborate yet carried by The Colonial Stock Company. It is needless to say that the same careful staging will be given in every production as heretofore.

Among the dramas and comedies to be given the coming season are 'Beyond the Law,' 'Under Arizona Skies,' 'Don Caesar De Bazan,' 'Vengeance is Mine,' 'Bill Waters Run Deep' and others, all of which have been tried and proved successes in England and the U. S.

The personnel of the company contains all the old favorites with the addition of Miss Moda Douglas, who from her past Stock record has proven herself an actress of more than average ability, besides being favored with a most pleasing personality and a generous share of good looks.

This season's repertoire gives every member of the aggregation an opportunity for histrionic work of which it is needless to say they will take advantage.

Miss Edith Warren will have in 'Under Arizona Skies,' a role entirely different to any that she has yet seen by the Canadian public.

Miss Revel will have another delightful comedy part in 'Beyond the Law,' which will compare favorably with her—well nigh perfect—rendition of 'Lady Dolly' in 'The Moths of Society' in which play she scored so well last year.

Jolly Frank Oliver will again be able to create many a good laugh at the expense of Carl Blayth, whose favorite pastime (on the stage) seems to be that of upsetting the domestic telety of the hero and heroine.

This excellent company will be seen here during the Annapolis, Kings and Hants counties Exhibition, beginning Tuesday, Oct. 10th, and it is unnecessary to predict that bumper houses will prevail throughout the engagement.
