THE POLT IN THE CITY

-Spectator, London.

And later, when all the earth was green
As the Garden of the Lord,
Primroses opening their innocent face,
Cowalips scattered abroad;
Blue-bells mimicking summer skies,
And the cong of the thrush outpoured, RUTH DARNEL'S RE-VENGE,

As Ruth Darnel sat under a magnificent yeamore-tree on the little lawn in front of ser mother's cottage, she formed a picture which Mr. Lealie would have delighted to paint, and which might have inspired a
