

The Sacrifice
and the Gain.

(STANLEY G. GRIMES.)
For four long years, the Earth abode
Did cry to God for Peace,
While tortured millions writhed in Strife, that murdered without cease.
And when at last, with folded wings,
The Dove, again found Rest,
Into the Maw of War had gone, the harvest, fairest, best.
The Grain, the Gold, the Life had gone,
And Hope was almost lost,
And a reeling World of Memories,
This day doth count the cost.

World of Grief, and World of Pain—
still paying an awful Price,
The "One who Suffered" 'tis written
"Not in vain was this Sacrifice."
There's a silence o'er the City, this
drear November morn,
As the echo of Cathedral Bells dies
solemn and forlorn,
And Commerce' chatter ceases, and
hushed the human voice,
And the People meet in homage at the Shrine of Sacrifice.

Under the thought for those who "neath
a foreign sky do sleep,
And hearts anew are stricken, as
angushed mothers weep.

Fathers of Men, and Mothers of Men,
burdened with Grief and Loss,
Look up, see now the Glory of Him who patiently bore His Cross.

Where Crimson Poppy petals droop,
out where the sea-birds roam,
They "Rest in Peace"—But, oh! the Pain of those still left at home,
And Faith grows weak, and Doubt grows strong, and an answer to Doubt is sought.

Is the Victory that hath crowned us,
a Victory too dearly bought?
But a tolling war-worn warrior, as
a heavy seeking soul,
Hath found in Death, the Road to
Life, and wearied, reached his goal.

Men, and Brothers of Men,
What a sacrifice 'tis written,
"They died that others might live."
St. John's, Nfld., Nov. 11th, 1921.

Llewellyn Club Meets.

OFFICERS ELECTED.

At the annual meeting of the Llewellyn Club held last night, in the Casino Hall, Rev. E. C. Earp, new rector of St. Thomas's, was elected President. The meeting was largely attended. After the minutes of the last meeting had been read and confirmed, the Secretary gave a graphic description of the work of the Club for the last year. The report was adopted. The Treasurer's report was then read and confirmed, showing a satisfactory financial condition.

The election of officers took place. Rev. E. C. Earp was elected President. Mr. C. E. Hunt, was re-elected Vice President. Mr. Llewellyn Colley, elected second Vice President. Mr. J. H. Burnell, Secretary, and Mr. Andrew Carroll, Treasurer. The Committee was re-elected en masse. Hon. Robert Watson presiding officer.

Rev. E. C. Earp then assuming his presidential office gave an address under three heads "The Llewellyn Club yesterday, to-day and to-morrow"; prefacing his remarks with a splendid picture of his conception of Dr. Jones, whom he had never seen, still those who were intimate with Dr. Jones were struck with wonder at his accuracy. Continuing his address he pointed out that Llewellyn Club was started as an experiment, and he paid a great tribute to Dr. Jones' work in St. Thomas's Parish. To-day the fellowship of the Club is an established fact. It has been built up on a spirit of brotherhood, unity and progress, which is vital and actuates all the members. Action speaks more than words, and Mr. Earp feels that a bright future is in store for the Club, which began with such happy promise. He believes the Llewellyn Club to be a unifying force and an inspiring agency in the city. He pointed out that this was the seventh year of its existence, which is a happy omen. He related some amusing instances of criticisms of his preaching in the trenches. It was part of his work to censor letters. Perhaps he learnt many things about himself.

Mr. Earp then outlined some of the subjects which he hoped to discuss this season:

- (1) The relation of industry to humanity, (wages and work, strikes, religion and labour).
- (2) International Peace.
- (3) Sanctity of the Marriage Tie.
- (4) Education.
- (5) The privilege and duties of the returned Soldier.
- (6) The unification of the Empire.

Messrs. L. Colley, and H. Y. Mott spoke briefly in answer to the rector, and extended to him a hearty vote of thanks, which was carried by acclamation. Messrs. R. Dowden, A. Carroll and Hon. R. Watson also were speakers.

A vote of thanks to the retiring officers was proposed by Mr. Moulton, and seconded by Mr. Oke. The singing of the National Anthem, brought the enjoyable evening to a close. Before leaving, however, three hearty cheers were given for the Rector.

C. E. I. Memorial Unveiled

COMRADES OF THE WAR COM MEMORATED.

Rev. Dr. Bolt, Registrar of the Diocese, in the absence of Bishop White last night unveiled the Memorial which the members of the C.E.I. have placed in their Club Rooms in honor of those who were active members at the time they enlisted. A special meeting had been called for the purpose. The President, Mr. J. J. Long opened the meeting with a short address and called upon Canon Bolt to unveil the Memorial. After a most instructive address by the Canon, the flags covering the Memorial were drawn aside and prayers, suitable to the occasion were recited. The Memorial takes the form of a mural tablet of bronze which was made by F. Osbourne & Co., Ltd., of London, England. It bears the flag of St. George in enamel, with the letters C.E.I. on the red cross. The flag is encircled with a wreath of laurel leaves. On the tablet are the names of those who gave their lives for the cause, followed by the names of others who also served. At the bottom is the motto: "Their Name Liveth for Evermore." Capt. L. Stick, who was the first to join the Newfoundland Regiment in 1914, on behalf of his comrades, thanked the members of the Institute for the Memorial. He was followed by Rev. Capt. Clayton, L.Th., C.F., after which the President tendered the thanks of the Institute to Canon Bolt for his kindness in unveiling the tablet. The members then joined in singing the National Anthem which brought the proceedings to a close. The Institute Rooms are open to the relatives and friends of those whose names appear on the Memorial and who may wish to see the tablet.

The following is the inscription on the Memorial Tablet:
