

Harbor Grace Notes.

An accident occurred on Tuesday evening last, when the schr. Shephard, Capt. Geo. Himmelman, was at the dock. While going on dock at 6:30 p.m., when the cradle was being hoisted, the vessel fell over on the port side and came back on an even keel. The vessel was aground on the wharf. Tuesday evening the tug John Green, arrived in port with a steam launch, and got to work at the schr. Shephard. The vessel was again hoisted and towed to St. John's the following morning to be docked. This accident to the large cradle of the Shephard is to be regretted, but we trust the amount of damage is not great, and that the cradle will not be long of commission.

Mr. J. Squires came over on the tug Green on Thursday and has been busy on the dock, examining the amount of damage sustained, as yet it is not known to what extent.

Capt. Abram Keen was in town last week representing Messrs. Dale & Co., in connection with the schr. Shephard, and left town again on Saturday.

On Friday evening, a concert was given at the Star Movie. The British band was in attendance and songs were rendered by Mrs. M. T. Jones, W. L. Ross, Miss E. Joy, Miss D. W. H. Kennedy, Mr. J. A. Wray and W. H. Kennedy. Mr. J. A. Wray recited. Every item was well received and the audience was a pronounced one. The feature for the evening was entitled "The Man from Swinburn Street."

The Committee of the Munn Memorial Hospital called a meeting of the ladies in town, in the Town Hall on Tuesday evening, which was very well attended. The speeches were made by Mrs. Simmons, Judge Oke, G. W. Andrews, and W. S. Madigan. The need for support and financial assistance was pointed out, and it was decided that a Committee of the ladies present be formed. The gentlemen then re-elected Mrs. (Rev.) W. R. J. Higgitt as President, Miss Kathleen Casey, Treasurer, and Miss Gladys St. John, Secretary, afterwards the following Executive Committee was formed:—Mrs. W. H. Parmiter, Mrs. W. S. Madigan, Mrs. E. Simmons, Mrs. L. Madigan, Mrs. C. D. Garland, Mrs. L. Whitman, and Miss Foley. It was decided at the meeting that during the week in August a Sports Day should be held in Shannon Park, when the men would look out for the sports and the ladies for the refreshments. We are hoping that the enthusiasm which has been aroused will not wane, and interest on all sides will be manifested in this Sports Day which will be a big day for Harbor Grace, and a large amount is expected to further the Hospital movement.

Rev. H. A. Goodwin, formerly pastor of the Central Methodist Church at St. John's, N. B., but recently appointed field Secretary of the Maritime Provinces and Newfoundland, occupied the pulpit of the Methodist Church on Sunday morning and delivered a very forcible sermon; the service was greatly enjoyed by the congregation. While in town, the Reverend gentleman was a guest of his cousin, Dr. W. S. Gold.

Mr. William Hamlyn, representing Messrs. Job. Stores, Ltd., St. John's, was in town on Saturday in the interests of his firm.

Dr. Randall's yacht "Madeline" arrived in port on the 7th inst for dockage.

S.S. Sagona arrived in port on Thursday evening on her way to Labrador and left again about 12.45.

Rev. W. R. J. Higgitt, who was attending Synod at St. John's, returned to town again on Wednesday. He is accompanied by Mrs. Higgitt.

Rev. W. H. Browning, who was attending the Methodist Conference at Grand Bank, arrived in town again on Saturday.

Mr. W. C. Archibald, representing Messrs. H. J. Heinz Co., Pittsburgh, U.S.A., was in town last week in the interests of his firm.

Mr. Jack Ross of the Western United Cable Co., Heart's Content, is spending his holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Ross.

Schr. Pindar arrived in port this morning about 2 o'clock. Messrs. I. E. Torsey and Henley Parmiter with a crew left port in the spring in this schooner to prosecute the lobster fishery on the West Coast, but did not meet with the success they had hoped, their friends are sorry to learn.

In my notes, which appeared in Friday's paper, 7th inst., a printer's error occurred. The funeral of the late Mr. William Godden should read the late Mr. William "Gordon," and not the former name, as stated on the above date.

Rev. Joe Joyce conducted the service at the Methodist Church on Sunday evening.

Among the passengers by S.S. Sagona for Labrador, were:—Mrs. R. S. Mann, Miss Muriel Mann, Mrs. Chris. Pike and little daughter, Florence; J. T. McRae and Fred Mann.

Miss May Chafe took passage by the S.S. Rosalind on Saturday for Halifax on her way to Bridgetown, where she will visit her uncle, Mr. Abram Gardiner.

Sir John Crosbie AND THE EUROPEAN MARKETS.

Editor Evening Telegram.
Dear Sir,—I have read that masterpiece on the European markets from the able pen of Sir John Crosbie in the Daily News under date June 23rd. First I must welcome him back to his native land and with the greatest gem to us all recovered health, and second congratulate him on his able letter to his countrymen in all walks of life, as to our fisheries, principally the codfishery, the average catch for fifteen years and the conditions as to exchange in Spain, Portugal and Italy which is enlightening to the general public, and which Sir John learned from the rough road of experience. As our fisheries represent about ninety per cent. of our total resources, I personally strongly endorse his views when he states that the fisheries in the past, present and future will take first place and the railroad and other industries are of minor importance. Supply and demand govern the market and over supply generally means lower prices, and the shipper when it is shipped on consignment will be the loser.

Quality takes first place as to our codfish, or any other food, and the consumer in Spain, Portugal or Italy must be given a square deal as to quality. When the shipper here sells merchantable, let it be merchantable, and not a mixture of market. The miller gives us Windsor Patent flour guaranteed, and while it keeps up to standard it sells itself. In my letter to the press on our fisheries in March last, I strongly pointed out to all that in many cases, we were handling our fish as an article of food to the consumer and that we must all combine, fisherman, planter, merchant and government, in curing our various kinds of fish with quality first, and get all the latest modernized ideas as to same. It is a Government's duty to encourage and assist with all means in its power the fisheries of Newfoundland, as all other matters are of minor importance, and then we Newfoundlanders will not worry about our competitors, Norwegian, etc., as our codfish, hering, salmon and caplin in their raw state are superior to any other in the world.

As I am only slowly recovering the health that I lost in endeavoring to uplift our country, as to its fisheries, I hope my methods will succeed. Hoping that Sir John's letter will have the effect that it deserves, and thanking you for your valuable columns.

Yours sincerely,
M. E. CONDON.

Dramatic Triumph at the Nickel

BEAUTIFUL OLIVE TELL IN "WINGS OF PRIDE."

She was proud, haughty, and the adopted daughter of a New York society woman. Olive Muir knew nothing of her real parents, nor did she bother much about anyone, who did not come into her own sphere of life. And then one day the crash came. She was compelled to acknowledge the drunken tool of a political boss as her father.

"Wings of Pride," which appears at this theatre shortly with Olive Tell as the star.

This is a brief synopsis of a tensely dramatic story written by Louis Kennedy Mable. It has many rare dramatic moments, sensational scenes and thrills.

It shows the brutal political boss making advances to the beautiful daughter of a man he holds in his power and the determined efforts of a rising young District Attorney to offset the "bad man's" efforts.

It also brings to mind the sufferings of many human beings in this world who, because they believe in right are compelled by some unknown power to endure terrible tortures of mind, until they are brought face to face with happiness.

Miss Tell's supporting cast includes John O'Brien, who gives an excellent performance in the leading role, that of a young District Attorney fighting the political boss, and his gang; Edwards Davies, who enacts the role of the political boss; Denton Vane, Ray's Dean; Margaret Seddon and Ida Paradee.
